Army Quits Government Of Algeria

Officers Withdraw On de Gaulle Order For Honest Voting

By ANDREW BOROWICZ
ALGIERS (AP)—French military officers withdrew today from the revolutionary Committee of Public Safety for Algeria on orders of Premier de Gaulle to get out of politics.

De Gaulle gave the order in an effort to insure honest, impartial parliamentary elections in Algeria without army interference.

Army officers have worked in the committee with European settlers who dominate political life here with their opposition to Algerian independence. The committee and smaller local ones rose to effective control of Algeria in the May 13 uprising which resulted in de Gaulle's return to power. He has ignored them since, letting them wither on the vine.

Hold Special Meeting

The big Central Committee for Algeria and the Sahara held a special meeting today to study the Premier's order and to set the stage for a dramatic walkout of its military members. They left 15 minutes after it started.

A joint chairman of the group was Brig. Gen. Jacques Massu, a hardbitten and colorful paratroop leader. He and a group of colonels who also served on the committee worked closely with the de Gaulle government. The officers have been widely accused of Fascist tendencies.

The Premier's order appeared aimed at thwarting hopes of European extremists of enlisting army help in the campaigning for the elections next month. The extremists were believed planning to put up pliable Moslems as candidates.

In presenting a program to improve Algeria economically, de Gaulle promised Oct. 3 that Algerian Moslems would get 45 of Algeria's 66 seats in the new French National Assembly. About 90 per cent of the Algerian population is Moslem.

The Premier said in a letter to Gen. Raoul Salan, French commander in Algeria, that the best interests of France demand an election with "absolute freedom and sincerity and that lists representative of all tendencies." (Continued on Page 2; Col. 3)

Yanks Return From Beirut

BREMERHAVEN, Germany (AP)—One thousand U.S. Army troops returned to Germany today from emergency duty in Lebanon.

They were the first group of soldiers to leave Lebanon by ship. They arrived in the transport General Le Roy Eltinge. More than 700 soldiers previously had been air lifted from Lebanon to West Germany.

The troops of the 24th Infantry Division were flown to Lebanon last July at the request of Camille Chamoun, then President. He feared a pro-Nasser coup.

Telephone Number Turns Out Unlucky

DETROIT (AP)—Police say William L. Miles picked a name from the telephone book at random, dialed and offered to sell the woman who answered a lucky number for $10. Mrs. Nellie Baldwin told Miles to come on over and pick up his money. When Miles got to her house, she arrested him. Mrs. Baldwin is a policewoman.

Church Split Nearing Over Racial Fight

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—There were rumblings of a possible denominational split here today as the local point of Little Rock's integration troubles switched from schools to churches.

About 300 persons formed a Council of Methodist Laymen Monday night with the announced intention of combating church integration. They indicated they would favor a split from the Methodist Church if it doesn't change its policy.

And a segregationist minister claimed a victory when a Southern Baptist group did not move to oust him from his ranks, as he had predicted it would.

Even as the city awaited another crucial federal court ruling from St. Louis Wednesday on the status of its closed high schools, there were indications that church segregation will play a bigger role in the ever-growing struggle here.

Mrs. L.C. Bates, Arkansas president of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, said she has tried to dissuade a Little Rock Negro from his campaign to integrate a white church. But she said she was unable to get any assurance from Albert Hudson, 45, that he would give up his efforts.

Hudson and other Negroes have appeared at the Second Baptist Church for two consecutive Sundays.

Stewart Due To Take Post

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Judge Potter Stewart of Cincinnati takes his seat in the U. S. Supreme Court today after swearing to uphold the Constitution and "do equal rights to the poor and to the rich."

Stewart was named to the high court from the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals by President Eisenhower a week ago today. He replaced Justice Harold H. Burton, who sat for the last time Monday as the justices began the first business of the 1958-59 term.

Westinghouse Offer Refused

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Negotiators for the International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE) and Westinghouse Electric Corp. returned to bargaining tables today to hammer out differences in job security issues that resulted in rejection of the firm's initial offer.

The IUE's Westinghouse Conference Board, representing 35,000 Westinghouse workers in plants throughout the country, met Monday and "unequivocally" rejected management's security plan. The board said the five-point program was "fantastically phony."

ALAMOGORDO, N. M. (AP)—The young pilot who rode the Air Force Man High balloon to the stratosphere last week ran a high temperature for hours.

But a surgeon who supervised by remote control from the ground, says Lt. Clifton McClure never became delirious and responded to directions properly all through the flight last Wednesday.

GOP Leaders Honor Ike On His Birthday

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower celebrates his 68th birthday today on a generally joyous note.

But the anniversary has a somber aspect, too, in the farewell tribute the President arranged to pay to Pope Pius XII.

Eisenhower, pictured by aides as feeling fine, starts observance of the day with a salute from Republican leaders who are counting on him for much help in the congressional and state election campaigns.

With Mrs. Eisenhower also invited to the breakfast party, the GOP leaders had ready for the President a mammoth happy birthday card signed by the 650 well wishers expected at the affair. Also on hand was a huge floral piece shaped in the form of a cake.

Advance indications were the President would respond with a brief pep talk telling the Republicans again they can win in November if they will get out and work hard.

London Upper Crust Asks Bird Muzzled

LONDON (AP)—The upper crust folk of Esher Park Avenue are demanding a legal muzzle for the Cockney cage bird that wails like a banshee and sings like a drunken sailor.

The bird is an Indian mynah, one of the more articulate members of the starling family. It lives in a superheated aviary at one of the biggest houses on the respectable, tree-lined avenue.

Its raucous repertoire—rendered largely in Cockney accents—picked up from a friendly garbage man—sends out a series of shudders through the sedate, suburban neighborhood.

Chiang Seeks U. S. Promise If Force Cut

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Indications mounted today that the United States will have a hard time getting Chiang Kai-shek to reduce his garrisons on the offshore islands.

The Nationalists reportedly will not consider any sizable withdrawal unless the United States gives unequivocal guarantees of immediate intervention if the Reds attack the weakened outposts.

The United States has not been willing to do this so far. Washington's idea reportedly is to give Chiang's forces more firepower and better weapons so they can defend the islands with less troops.

This presumably was urged by U.S. Defense Secretary Neil McElroy in two conferences with the Nationalist President Monday. But local newspapers including semi-official organs continued to denounce the idea of a cut in the offshore garrisons.

McElroy visited military installations in the Pescadores Islands today, between Formosa and the mainland, and then joined the U.S. 7th Fleet en route to Manila.

Nationalist officials continued to insist that the Communists would resume hostilities when it suits them. They contended that the Reds had extended their ceasefire for two weeks because they had lost the battle of Quemoy, and any reduction of the islands' garrisons would convert a Communist military defeat into a political victory.

London Airport Strike Called

LONDON (UPI)—About 300 ground crewmen at London Airport struck early today, forcing the nationalized British Overseas Airways Corp. to cancel all its services.

The first six flights cancelled as a result of the strike included two to New York and one each to Montreal, Singapore, Johannesburg and Lagos.

The strike is expected to spread later today to include 4,000 maintenance men.

Dixie Underground Blamed In Atlanta Temple Bombing

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—A crude bomb hurled at the annex of a Jewish temple early today fell into an outside stairwell, exploded and shattered several windows in the three-story structure.

Damage to the rear annex of the Anshei Emeth Temple was termed "very small" by Rabbi Joseph Ginsberg, who serves the 700-member congregation. No one was in the temple or annex at the time, and there were no injuries.

"Nothing like this has ever happened here before," said Rabbi Ginsberg. "The local situation with regard to our relations with the community has always been very good."

Fashioned From Pipe

Police said the bomb was fashioned from a two-inch pipe several inches long with a two-foot fuse attached. The stairwell where it landed leads into the annex basement. Police reported the bombing had occurred about 12:30 a.m.

Robert Briscoe, former Jewish lord mayor of Dublin, will address a gathering at the Agudas Achim Synagogue in Peoria tonight, but Rabbi Ginsberg said he did not see any connection between the Briscoe appearance and the bombing.

Rabbi Ginsberg said that several years ago he served as chairman of the Peoria Mayor's Commission on Human Relations that helped desegregate a public housing project in this central Illinois city of 112,000.

"However, the project was carried out very successfully, and I fail to see how this could have had anything to do with the bombing," he said.

The temple, built in 1898, is five blocks from Peoria's downtown section. The annex was constructed in the 1920s. Rabbi Ginsberg said.

Rabbi Ginsberg, 47, came to Peoria 11 years ago from Dallas. Today's bombing was the fifth such incident at Jewish centers in the United States since mid-March.

Atlanta Dynamiting Plotted Last May

ATLANTA (AP)—A man who said he might be killed for speaking has signed a statement that the dynamiting of the Jewish temple was planned last May at a meeting of an anti-Semitic organization in east Atlanta.

Police said the informant dictated the statement in the presence of three officers late Monday night but asked that his name be withheld because his home might be bombed if the underground group learned what he had done.

Sgt. M. W. Blackwell quoted the man as saying he attended the meeting at which plans were made for the bombing but that he objected to the use of dynamite and was not invited to attend later sessions.

Between 40 and 50 sticks of dynamite were set off early Sunday against a wall of the temple. Damage was estimated at $200,000.

The informant said that one (Continued on Page 2; Col. 3)

African Blonde Wins Title Of 'Miss World'

LONDON (AP)—A willowy, 18-year-old honey blonde from South Africa with 35-23-36 measurements is Miss World of 1958.

The judges picked 5-foot-7½ Penelope Anne Coelen from 20 contestants Monday night. She was a favorite all the way with the crowd.

Along with the title Penny won 500 pounds ($1,400), a beige sports car and contracts for personal appearances.

The American entry, Nancy Anne Corcoran, New York City, was among the 14 girls who didn't make the final round.

Pontiff Rites Conducted By Church Heads

Mourning Masses To Continue, More Cardinals Arriving

By REINHOLD G. ENSZ

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Requiem services for Pope Pius XII continued today before a symbolic coffin in St. Peter's Basilica as more cardinals arrived to elect his successor.

The late pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church was buried Monday in the grotto beneath St. Peter's. An empty coffin was placed in the church for mourning Masses that continue through Sunday.

The titular Bishop of Adana, Msgr. Diego Venini, stepped before the coffin in the Chapel of the Chorus and celebrated today's Mass.

The cardinals already in the Vatican later in the day were to receive members of the diplomatic corps accredited to the Holy See. Eugene Cardinal Tisserant, dean of the College of Cardinals, is presiding over their official functions until a new pope is chosen.

On Sunday, when the nine-day mourning period ends, the cardinals will receive special envoys of foreign governments paying their respects to the late Pope. The U.S. envoys will be Secretary of State Dulles, former Ambassador to Italy Clare Boothe Luce and John A. McCone, director of the Atomic Energy Commission.

About a dozen cardinals were expected to arrive today to join the 28 already in the Vatican. All but two of the 53 cardinals probably will be here for the conclave beginning Oct. 25 to elect a new pope. The two who won't make it are Alojzije Cardinal Stepinac of Yugoslavia and Josef Cardinal Mindszenty of Hungary.

Widow Jailed, Confesses She Stole $54,000

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A war widow admits embezzling $54,000 from a department store to help support her four children and pay medical expenses.

The medical care apparently resulted at least partly from the embezzling. "I got ulcers worrying about it," Police Inspector Gil Dowd quoted Mrs. Florida Lopez as saying.

Dowd said Mrs. Lopez, 48, had signed an admission and told him the reasons she took the money from the City of Paris store.

Bomb Explodes In Ghana Chapel

ACCRA, Ghana (AP)—A homemade bomb exploded today in the private chapel of the Roman Catholic Bishop of Kumasi. It was the fifth such attack on the chapel.

Bishop Andrew Van Den Bronk lives less than 10 yards from the point of explosion but was unhurt.

He blamed a group in Kumasi who think the post should be held by an African. Bishop Van Den Bronk is a Dutchman.

Four Were Poisoned 'Black Widow' Faces Death For Murders

MACON, Ga. (UPI)—Anjelie Donovan Lyles, silver-haired "black widow" convicted of taking her daughter's life with ant poison, today faced a sentence that would make her the first woman to die in Georgia's electric chair.

An all-male jury deliberated an hour and 31 minutes late Monday before returning a verdict of guilty against the defendant, who is gray-haired at 33 and who has grown plump since her arrest last summer.

Superior Court Judge Oscar Long set the execution Dec. 5, but later granted a stay under a motion by the defense for an appeal hearing, which he set Dec. 12.

The death sentence was mandatory under law, since the jury did not recommend mercy.

No woman has been executed since Georgia adopted the electric chair for capital punishment some 30 years ago. Only three women in state history ever have paid with their lives, all by hanging.

The state, in presenting its case, constructed an imposing array of evidence that Anjelie slipped an arsenic-based ant poison into the food and drink of those closest to her nearly seven years ago. Evidence tended to show that hatred and greed were her motives.

Her first victim, the state charged, was Ben J. Lyles Jr., her first husband who died Jan. 25, 1952. The second alleged victim was Joe Neal Gabbert, a big airlines pilot from Texas whose five-month marriage to Anjelie ended in a horrible, writhing death on Dec. 2, 1955.

The third victim named, Mrs. Julia Young Lyles, mother of the first husband, died Sept. 29, 1957. Marcia Elaine, the 9-year-old daughter whose illness triggered an investigation, died last April 5. The state charged the defendant inherited $48,750 as beneficiary of the alleged victims.

McElroy Checks Formosa Bases

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI)—U.S. Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy today inspected U.S. military bases on Formosa in a possible prelude to withdrawal of some American units rushed here at height of the Quemoy crisis.

McElroy conferred with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek Monday and with Defense Minister Yu Taw-tai today in the Pescadores Islands, major Nationalist staging area for sending supplies to Quemoy.

Solon Says Nixon's Challenge On Peace Issue Too Dangerous

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) said today "the stakes are too great and the possibilities too dangerous to permit foreign policy to become a political football."

Mansfield spoke out in an interview as Vice President Nixon challenged Democrats to match the Truman administration's handling of international affairs against President Eisenhower's record.

Nixon said in a statement, shown in Chicago the policy carried out by former Secretary of State Dean Acheson "resulted in war and the Eisenhower-Dulles policy resulted in peace." He spoke out in reply to a critical weekend statement from the Democratic Advisory Council.

Mansfield, the assistant Senate Democratic leader, expressed hope that foreign policy "does not become a political issue" but said his party's members have a right to criticize administration actions in the foreign field.

Because Democrats express disagreement with some policies, Mansfield cautioned, "no one should harbor the illusion that Americans are a disunited people."

A similar note was sounded Sunday by Chairman Theodore F.

Green (D-Rt) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee after a meeting with Secretary of State Dulles. Green had publicly criticized current administration policies.

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.), like Mansfield a foreign relations committeeman, said without elaborating he understood Dulles had sought to limit public discussion of the policies, Morse added in a telegram to Green:

"I shall continue to criticize the Eisenhower-Dulles foreign policy on the public platform because it is a matter the American people are entitled to have discussed freely and openly."

Movie Tough Guy Jailed For Kicking Policeman

NEW YORK (UPI)—Movie tough guy Lawrence (Dillinger) Tierney went on another of his periodic rampages early today and wound up being charged with kicking a policeman.

Police locked up Tierney, 39, and a friend, Arthur Kennedy, 32, of Lynbrook, N. Y., after a free-for-all.

A radio car was ordered to the corner 6th Ave. and W. 53th St. after several persons called to report two men were attacking passersby in the street, police said.

Patrolmen Louis Romano and Sam Sapan arrived to find Tierney and Kennedy arguing with Louis Pfaff, owner of a bar at the corner. Police said Kennedy and Tierney looked as though they had been in a half-dozen fist fights.

Pfaff said he didn't want the two men in his bar and asked that they be locked up for disorderly conduct. Romano placed them under arrest.

Tierney's reaction, police said, was to kick Romano in the groin. Kennedy, they said, lit into patrolman Sapan.

A crowd gathered to watch the battle, and after a few minutes the police were able to get Tierney and Kennedy into their squad car and drive them away after a short illness.

Merger Gets Church Okay

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—The American Lutheran Church overwhelmingly approved final plans Monday for its merger with two other Lutheran bodies.

The proposed constitution, by-laws and articles of union were approved at the American Lutheran Church's 19th biennial convention.

The merger is to take place in 1960 and 1961.

Involved are the 973,000 members of the American Lutheran Church, the million-member Evangelical Lutheran Church and the 65,000-member United Evangelical Lutheran Church. The three groups are of different national backgrounds.

say all tendencies — be allowed concurrently and equally to solicit the suffrage of the electorate."

The worst danger, he added, "would be the formation of lists solely favored by the official authority."

Sharp Contrast Noted

The Premier's instructions were in sharp contrast to army conduct in the referendum last month on the constitution of the Fifth French Republic. The army barred all campaigning against the constitution while working successfully to turn out a large vote for it.

De Gaulle said no one could run for Parliament who was in the military, a civil servant, or had held military or government posts within the last year. All others are eligible except "those who participate in terrorism and, because of this fact, are liable to prosecution," he said.

member of the group who had worked as an architect drew plans of the temple showing exactly where the explosive was to be placed. He said the dynamite was to have been obtained from Harlan, Ky., and set off by a man brought from Birmingham, Ala.

Police said the man's statement might prove to be the first real break in the investigation of bombings of Jewish structures in the South.

FBI agents joined with state and Atlanta authorities and with police from neighboring states in probing every angle of the statement.

The name of the anti-Semitic organization was not made public but police said they were told it had several members in every major Southern city.

Detective Capt. R. E. Little said four persons had been picked up on holding charges of suspicion of vagrancy and were still being questioned.

In New York, Henry E. Schultz, national chairman of the B'nai B'rith's Antidiscrimination League, said a list of anti-Semitic extremists would be turned over to Atlanta police.

Pioneer Pilot In Army Dies At Farm Home

DAYTON, Ohio (UPI)—Col. Stanley M. Umstead, 62, once known as the dean of all Army pilots, died Monday night at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base Hospital after a five-month illness.

Umstead, who retired to a farm near here in 1951, logged more than 13,000 hours flying time during his 32 years in the service. He flew 350 different models and types of experimental aircraft, including everything from Jennies, the first U. S. military trainer, to the B19, world's biggest military aircraft in the late 1930's. He was test pilot for the first B19.

Umstead began his military career in 1917 when he was graduated from the first Air Corps officer training course. He was chief of the flying branch at Wright Field from 1937 to 1942.

Blunder Seen On 'Pioneer'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Defense Department and Air Force admitted today they committed what was probably a historic blunder Saturday when they announced that the "Pioneer" moon rocket had escaped the "pull of earth's gravity."

About 90 minutes after the rocket was launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla., and when it was some 20,000 miles above the earth's surface, a previously prepared press release was issued proudly asserting that the lunar probe rocket was "the first man-made object known to escape the earth's gravitational field."

Atom Shots Set By AEC

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—The Atomic Energy Commission scheduled two test atomic shots for Wednesday and another for Thursday in an attempt to complete its projected 10-shot series before the proposed nuclear deadline, Oct. 31.

The scheduled shots will bring the total to eight.

The fifth and most powerful shot of the series was detonated Monday. It exploded with a force of 10,000 tons of TNT and its flash could be seen as far as 500 miles away.

The AEC is seeking to complete the series before a proposed nuclear test ban between the U.S. and Russia goes into effect Oct. 31.

Detroit Woman Has Four Daughters, Hubby Happy

DETROIT (UPI)—"Two doctors came down the stairs and told me my wife had given birth to four daughters, and that's about it," Charles Ullman said today.

"We're mighty happy about it. 'No,' none of the milk companies or other firms have offered any help as yet."

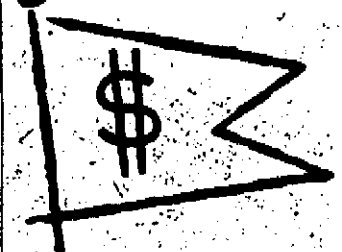

"Baby clothes? Oh, well, I guess we'll use the other kids' hand-me-downs."

Charles Ullman, a carpenter for a Detroit contracting firm, had a lot of figuring to do today—like how to clothe and feed the four daughters his 33-year-old wife, Julia, presented him Sunday night.

The little girls rested in their incubators today: 17-inch Helen, 4 pounds and 2 ounces; 18-inch Martha, 4 pounds, 2½ ounces; 18-inch Marion, 4 pounds and 10 ounces; and 17-inch Catherine, 4 pounds.

Doctors said the healthy girls would remain in the incubators until their weight exceeds five pounds, between two and three weeks.

Ullman, 34, has two other children — Charles, 2½, and one-year-old Louise — and he admitted his five-room, one-floor ranch house in suburban Clawson would be "a little crowded."

Have you visited Headquarters for a Second Income?

More and more families are looking into the possibility of a second income by visiting what we might call Headquarters.

If you don't know Headquarters, you ought to. They're the Member Firms of the New York Stock Exchange. They've helped millions of people along the road to extra income through sensible investment in stocks or bonds. Here's how they can help you.

First. When you invest, you need facts and intelligent advice. It's foolish to depend on tips or rumors. Stock and bond prices go down as well as up. A company may not pay a dividend or interest, may not make a profit. So you drop in at a nearby Member Firm, where you'll be most welcome. You may say to a Registered Representative or a Partner something like this: "I'm not rich. But I have money left over after paying my bills. And my emergencies are cared for. How can I best use this extra cash to bring me extra income from investments?"

Second. The man (sometimes it's a woman) is glad to share his knowledge with you. Before anyone can become a Registered Representative with a Member Firm of the New York Stock Exchange he must meet Exchange requirements for character, knowledge and experience. He may advise bonds instead of stocks. He may give you (ask him for it) a copy of "DIVIDENDS OVER THE YEARS," with the records of more than 300 stocks that have paid a cash dividend every year from 25 to 100 years. He can help you work out a sensible investment program for your needs and pocketbook. And from time to time ask him to review your securities with you.

Third. You've decided to buy, let's say, some common stock on the New York Stock Exchange. This will make you part-owner of a company. If it prospers, that can be mighty pleasant, because you can share in any profits and probably in any growth. The Member Firm sends your order promptly to its representative on the floor of the Exchange. This is the great market place where orders to buy or sell securities come together from investors all over the country. The stocks and bonds of most of the famous corporations of America are listed there.

Fourth. On the floor of the Exchange, your Member Firm's man finds a seller, often within minutes after you've placed your order. And whisk! the order is executed. The only charge for this experienced service is a modest commission that varies with the amount of your order.

That night at the dinner table you say quietly to the little woman, "Darling, I'm part-owner of a big American business." If she doesn't glow with gratitude, wait for the arrival of your first dividend check. Then look out for the lipstick. If you're impatient to get more information (and why not be?) send this coupon now and we'll mail you your free copy of the immensely helpful booklet that gives the records of all those stocks. It also describes the Monthly Investment Plan, through which you can acquire stocks on the New York Stock Exchange for as little as $40 every three months up to $1000 a month.

In an emergency the value of medicine can hardly be reckoned in dollars. Medicine is priceless when needed.

Yet it is an interesting fact that nationally the average cost of a pharmaceutical prescription is about $2.50 — and more than half of all prescriptions cost less than $2.00. Although higher than 20 years ago, the increase in the cost of medicine lags far behind that of other, and less essential, commodities.

When you purchase a prescription you are sharing in the fruits of scientific research. You are getting today's best buy.

Old Men Gone

PRESIDENT Eisenhower's appointment of a new Supreme Court justice, Potter Stewart of Cincinnati, to replace retiring Justice Harold Burton makes it possible to say that the high court now has an "Eisenhower majority." But, actually, if the President has done his work well, that fact should be largely meaningless, except as a measure of the fairly rapid turnover which affects the court as it does all human agencies. For any court worthy of the name must be independent of the other branches of government. And its members cannot in any way be beholden to the executive who appoints them. The Congress in 1937 dealt sternly with the idea, then advanced by the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, that a court's make-up ought to be altered to "fit the times." The lawmakers crushed his famous court-packing plan which would have enlarged the number of justices from nine to fifteen.

A COURT DOES NOT exist to give legal sanction to particular government policies, or, for that matter, simply to knock them down. It has to be guided solely by the fundamental law and by judicial standards and precedents. Mr. Eisenhower plainly has sought to further that concept of the Supreme Court's function by finding his recruits—with the exception of Chief Justice Earl Warren—strictly among the ranks of the experienced judiciary. That turn represented a heartening change from earlier days when a distinct tendency was shown to give Supreme Court posts to "deserving" politicians. The Court began to look like a quiet resting place, an election-free Nirvana, for those who had earned a president's highest gratitude. Mr. Eisenhower also has shown signs of trying to give the court new vibrancy by bringing down its average age. The newest addition, Stewart, is only 43, and if he should later be confirmed by the U. S. Senate that average will decline from 63 to 60.

STEWART IS NOT the youngest ever chosen. Justice William O. Douglas was 40 when selected, and in the nation's youth men in their 30's often were named. But coming in line with the President's choice of Justice Brennan, 52, and Whitaker, 57, it has the mark of a trend. The new justice is drawing warm praise. A conservative like his predecessor, Burton, he has the American Bar Association's approval. His career appears to suggest substantial promise for what could be a long tenure on the high court. The Supreme Court lives today amid the winds of controversy. But whatever else is being said about it, no longer can it fairly be called a body of "nine old men." Mr. Eisenhower has seen to that.

Sensitive Mr. K.

SOVIET PREMIER Nikita Khrushchev has always done his best to follow the bloody course set by his old master, the late but scarcely lamented Stalin. There is blood on Khrushchev's hands, too—not as much blood as on those of his mentor (though the slaughter of Hungarian freedom fighters did help some in that respect) but enough to make him one with Stalin in kind, if not in degree. Recently, however, Khrushchev has become a bit touchy about the matter. He is especially irked by hints that his hands have even been crimsoned by the blood of Stalin himself. When a recent television drama, "The Plot to Kill Stalin," not only hinted this but stated it bluntly in dramatic terms, Khrushchev sent Ambassador Menshikov to the State Department to protest this "filthy slander." Maybe it was indeed a filthy slander. Maybe Khrushchev would like to set the matter to rights by doing something that he and his Kremlin associates have not seen fit to do—that is, by telling the full, documented truth of just how Comrade Stalin did meet his death. Maybe Khrushchev would like to do that. And maybe he wouldn't. Habits of secrecy about such affairs are not easily broken. There is one further point of interest. It might almost be called a point of information, for Khrushchev if not for his Man Friday stationed in Washington. The Soviet protest was registered with the State Department, rather than with the TV network that carried the offending drama. In this country, Mr. K., the government cannot flick its whip at a network—or newspaper, or magazine, or book publisher, or movie maker, or even a private citizen—whose views might be embarrassing. That's what is called freedom of speech. Over here, we like it.

Baleful Signs For Nasser Are Seen

WASHINGTON — Baleful signs for Gamal Abdel Nasser are beginning to appear on the troubled horizon of the Middle East, but American officials are taking no comfort from them.

Nasser and his flirtation with Moscow have been the bane of U.S. policy makers for years. The thorn has been particularly irksome because they had such high hopes for him when he overthrew the corrupt and decadent Egyptian government of King Farouk in 1952.

His power reached a peak last Feb. 1 when Egypt and Syria merged into the United Arab Republic. At last he had taken a giant step toward his goal of uniting all the Arab countries.

BUT NASSER may now be having second thoughts, not only about the wisdom of taking over Syria, but also about leading pan-Arabism as well.

Nasser is confronted with a disenchanted and restive Syria within in his own camp and a strong new Arab force outside it.

The best available intelligence estimate here on the Middle East is an apprehensive one. In the opinion of one highly qualified expert, almost anything could happen anywhere — perhaps before the month is out.

NASSER is faced in Iraq with the rise of Abdul Kassem, leader of the July 14 revolt which threw out the pro-West government of King Faisal and Premier Nuri Said. Premier Kassem is no pan-Arab like Nasser, but an Iraqi nationalist. Nasser cannot dispose of Kassem as an American stooge or a tool of Britain.

Kassem demonstrated his independence and growing power last weekend by smashing a revolt led by troops following Col. Abdul Aref, his chief rival. Aref, a strong supporter of Nasser, has been agitating for Iraq's annexation to the U.A.R.

IRAQ AND Syria, lying together in the Fertile Crescent, are far closer culturally than are Egypt and Syria. Reports are that some in Syria, unhappy over playing second fiddle in the U.A.R., would like to break away and join up with Iraq.

Nasser may have been reacting to such sentiment when he reorganized his Cabinet two days ago. Of the 21 members, 15 are Egyptians and six Syrians.

According to some advances, Nasser now believes Egypt and Syria might better have federated, instead of merging. That way each would have preserved more national identity, and less responsibility would weigh on him.

ONE RESULT of Nasser's difficulties in his new role might be to arrest his ambition to get all Arab states under his power. But there could be a far more ominous result.

King Saud of Saudi Arabia is reported ailing while intrigue rages among the princes over who should succeed him. The Sudan is shaky and Yemen is no better off, these reports say.

Lebanon's leaders are fighting among themselves in what could develop into a religious war, pitting Christians against Muslims in a further confounding of an already embittered situation.

A weak and confused Nasser would not be a welcome sight to Washington officials concerned about the general state of Middle East affairs.

They were happiest when Nasser emerged as a leader. He seemed then to be the one man commanding general respect with whom they could get things done.

Just What Happened In 85th Congress?

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Rival claims of Democratic and Republican campaign leaders on what Congress has done or is going to do have now become so sweeping that they appear ridiculous.

What the record shows is that 51 per cent of President Eisenhower's recommendations to the last session of Congress were acted upon by the Democratic-controlled Senate and House. So how do you score credit for that?

Not all measures passed were approved in exactly the form recommended. But they were close enough so that the President felt justified in signing them into law.

The final tabulation shows 134 recommendations by the President in messages to Congress with 68 items approved, 66 rejected or not acted upon.

CONGRESS gave the President from 70 to 75 per cent of his requests for national defense, farm policy and improving the status of government employees.

From 48 to 60 per cent of the President's recommendations on international affairs, commerce, housing and general government were enacted. But only 35 per cent of the administration labor and public welfare programs were approved and only 35 per cent of its natural resources plans.

This score card of course covers only major issues. It represents only a small part of the 621 public laws enacted by the last Congress. But most of the nearly 500 public laws originating in Congress were minor administrative measures or benefits to one state or area.

It is against the background of this record that Republican and Democratic politicians are now making their big pitches to the voters.

Democratic National Committee Chairman Paul Butler emphasizes that his party's Senate and House candidates should run on the record of the 85th Congress.

DEMOCRATS not only take credit for enacting half of the President's recommendations. They also go beyond that to take credit for improving them. And they claim some credit for rejecting that 49 per cent of the President's program on which Congress did not act.

Part of the Democrats' argument is that if they had just a few more votes in the last Congress, they could have enacted many measures which failed to pass because of Republican opposition.

Included would have been more liberal housing legislation, bigger public assistance grants, lower interest rates, a food stamp plan, increased unemployment insurance, labor legislation and more aid to education for scholarships and school construction. These measures apparently will be part of the Democratic program for next year.

The Republican side of this argument naturally takes a dim view of the Democratic claims. The GOP story makes little mention of how much of the President's program was or was not enacted. The main line is that election of another Democratic-controlled Congress would turn the government over to "labor bosses and left-wing extremists . . . far to the left of the New and Fair Deals."

A STATEMENT issued by Republican National Committee Chairman Neade Alcorn after the conference of party leaders at the White House, went so far as to say:

"Private enterprise and individual initiative . . . could not survive in such a climate. Nationalism, socialization of industry would inevitably follow. And all of us would become pawns of a superstate."

Alice In Wonderland?

WASHINGTON — The Alice in Wonderland quality sometimes evident in U.S. relations with Red China often finds expression in public statements by admirals and generals.

There is at times the impression that the State Department and the Pentagon are pursuing different policies.

Secretary of State Dulles and Acting Secretary of Defense Quarles have taken steps to erase any such impression from the minds of the people who work under them.

QUARLES told a news conference last Thursday: "In tense times such as those, almost any statement regarding the military situation has political overtones, and frequently overtones that might not be realized on the other side of the Pacific."

"We are asking people to be very careful about comments about the military situation that could take on political implications."

Similar instructions have been sent out by Dulles.

QUARLES' comment came two days after the U.S. Pacific air commander, Gen. Laurence S. Kuter, credited Nationalist air victories and U.S. blockade-running for Red China's cease-fire offer in the Formosa Strait.

Kuter's statement, in a Tokyo interview, upset top officials at the State Department. It was not the first time that a top military man on the scene had spoken out about matters in the current China crisis which U.S. diplorats were trying to handle with kid gloves.

KUTER's statement was particularly unwelcome at the State Department because it came after Red China's cease-fire. Department officials wondered if it might bring the whole delicate structure of a modus vivendi—some way to get along with Peiping—crashing about their ears.

Dulles' main goal, ever since the Red Chinese started shooting at the Nationalists' offshore islands on Aug. 23, has been to stop the shooting.

Whether the Reds stopped for humanitarian reasons, as Peiping claimed, or because they were failing, as Kuter says, or to negotiate a settlement, as Dulles offered, was beside the point, so far as the State Department is concerned. The point was they had stopped.

"FACE" is important to all peoples, but especially to the Chinese. If the Reds were looking for an excuse to call off all bets and resume raising a ruckus, statements questioning their motives or implying weakness might provide that excuse.

Red China's main goal now appears not so much to conquer the Nationalist coastal islands headquarters on Formosa as to remove the American presence from the Formosa area.

"We are all Chinese," the Communists now say. And they are ready to exploit any possible justification for their propaganda cry that "America is the common enemy."

Suits? Take Your Choice

WASHINGTON — Every year about now, whether I need it or not, I drop by the atelier of Bob Stein, the custom tailor, and order a suit.

This time I decided I'd be the man in the gray flannel suit, and Bob said that was an excellent decision, now that gray flannel no longer is the badge of the sincere types in the novels about Madison Avenue. He also said, did I want Japanese flannel, Italian, or British?

He said to my amazement that the Japs currently are shipping to this country about three million yards of men's suitings a year and that, for the money, it is good material. He showed me some Japanese flannel which looked fine, though it did seem a little heavy.

ITALIAN flannel, costing a little more, seemed somewhat less fuzzy, while the British flannel, at a slightly extra price, was the best of all. Since my annual suits last about six years each, I settled for the British, and I also asked Stein what was the matter with American flannels.

Nothing, he said, except that made-in-America material of equal quality sells for even more than the English. He said he didn't bother with American goods.

"A SUIT MADE of American cloth costs about $10 more than one of British," he said, "and who's going to pay that?"

He also said, did I want my suit cut like last year's, or did I want continental styling?

I said, continental, of course. He said, did I know what this continental business meant? I had no idea and he explained:

"The powers-that-be in the clothing business are trying to make men change styles, like women do. This, I've got to admit, is good for business, but it always seems to backfire. Take double-breasted suits."

THESE WENT out of style soon after the war. Everybody threw his old ones away, or had them recut into single-breasted. A number of mail-order firms specialized in slicing down men's suits.

"And then about three years ago the men's stylists tried to bring back the double-breasted," Stein said. "They're still trying and they're getting nowhere."

These new continental-cut suits, he said, remind him of the sharp clothes worn by vaudeville hoofers back in 1920.

Stein said they featured a coat so short it did not even cover the seat, narrow shoulders, and almost skin-tight pants, without pleats down the front for give.

"I MADE ONE of these suits for myself," he said, "and it was so uncomfortable, I couldn't wear it."

"The trouble was, when I nar-

Reporter's Notebook

By HUGH A. MULLIGAN
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK—The class of 1948 of Marlboro College, Marlboro, Vt., held its annual reunion recently and filed the most negative report in the annals of alumni annotation.

Not since the Electoral College gave up football has any college graduating class had a less distinguished history.

After 10 years in the cold cruel world, far from the protective ivy of old alma mater, so the class statistician told the class secretary, who in turn told the class president, the class has chafed up no births, no deaths, no marriages, no divorces, no millionaires, no bowery bums, no famous artists, musicians or athletes, no captains of industry, no clergymen, no government officials, not even one conspicuous success in women's ready-to-wear or door-to-door vacuum cleaner sales.

THE ENTIRE class has gained 35 pounds since graduation, drives a 1953 model car, works in a cramped, cluttered office, lives in a five-room walk-up apartment in what sociologists term a culturally deprived neighborhood, files a simplified tax return, votes a split ticket, has one cat, no dogs and has never been arrested or dated Kim Novak or been caught cribbing in an isolation booth.

The Marlboro man 10 years later has less brown hair, more gray hair, less total hair, bleary blue eyes, rakishly flaring arches, smokes a pack of nonfilter cigarettes a day, is always on the threshold of an awesomely austere diet, and exhibits the same ungainly lack of coordination at bowling and table tennis as he did at skiing and ice skating in his more virile campus days.

He may not be handsome; he's something less than dynamic, but one thing you can say about the Marlboro man, vintage '48, he's loyal.

When the class gathered for the reunion in the back booth of a Sixth Avenue bar and rose misty-eyed to sing the old school song, "How Are Things at Casserole College?" not a man was missing. Yes, not a man was missing, even though only one man was there.

And that one man was me—or I, if the English Department had done its duty.

Not many people can say that they were the only member of their college graduating class. Not many people would care to say it, but that is entirely beside the point.

HOW DOES ONE get to be in a class by himself? Well, Marlboro College, located on a lovely Vermont hillside, first opened its doors in 1947 with a full freshman class, a couple of dozen sophomores and juniors, and no seniors until I arrived all eager and busting for baccalaureate.

Before the war I had attended a two-year college, picked up another year at a university operated by the army at Biarritz, France, and persuaded the Marlboro faculty to put the intellectual roof on their noble edifice by accepting me as a senior.

Even in its first year, Marlboro developed many heart-tugging traditions, most of them built around the casserole dishes that seemed to be a fixture at nightly meals and inspired the old school song.

Since that time, the college has turned out many brilliant and distinguished graduates, but only the class of '48 could boast of a man who not only finished first in his class, but was voted class athlete, class poet, class valedictorian, most likely to succeed, best mixer, best lover, most popular, and at once the tallest, shortest, fattest, slimmest, smartest, dumbest, most ingratiating of his peers.

Assignment America

NEW YORK—Once upon a better, calmer time, a youngster who wanted to be an actor—or a painter, a poet—was almost as normal as the bank clerk next door.

They went to Hollywood, or Broadway or Paris, and knocked on doors. When they got hungry enough, they either accepted friendly donations or looked for honest or dishonest work. They were artistic, yes. But on the whole, they also were realistic.

Now it's different. Now—thanks to the birth of psychiatry and the importance of a brilliant, ambiguous word "non-conformity"—the young artist is afraid to be sensible. He is afraid to know anything about money; scared to live compatibly with other residents of this world.

"TERRIFIED. They're actually terrified," said Frances Fuller, a great and sensitive lady of the American theatre. "They feel that if they grow normal, they'll never be artistic. They think that they must 'live' as no one else lives, and to the hills."

"And too many tend to live—well, a little too much for their professional good. I don't know why people should think that common sense is an enemy of inspiration. But they do."

In other times, when she was more acquainted with footlights than with youngsters, Frances Fuller did not bleed for what she calls "all those young lives, so dedicated to confusion."

But for the past five years she has been director and president of the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, which is 75 years old this year. This job, plus the raising of three children during a 30-year marriage to TV pioneer producer Worthing Minor, has given her insight. And sympathy.

Besides being president of the Academy and the woman who recommended Grace Kelly and Anne Bancroft for their first acting jobs, Frances is, still, an active actress. Currently she is understudy for both Helen Hayes, whom she remarkably resembles, and Betty Field in the Eugene O'Neill hit, "A Touch of the Poet."

EVERY DAY she auditions and teaches dozens of potential actors and actresses. Her mission: "To help them become more self-aware; to accept themselves."

In this psychiatry-conscious era, there are more reasons than ever for young people to think they want to act.

"Some," she says, "don't like themselves and want to hide in another character. They are the ones who must be straightened out quickly. Others have a genuine liking for humanity, an amusement in the people about them—they are potentially fine character actors. A few of them take the attitude: 'This looks awful easy, and there's so much money in it.'"

"They lose," Miss Fuller smiles. "I've always thought the desire for money often depletes the energies of artists."

U. S. Policy Puzzles People Abroad

There is the mirror of self-interest, national and personal. In Paris, Pierre Lengelle, Algerian rebels discussed American highway inspectors, complaints. Americans call us "colonialists." This reminds me of an Algerian proverb: "Beat your wife but their government is a different thing. One day they support in aid to Europe and Asia but the reason why, she does." "We know why the Communists are against us but the Americans, they should never have been against us in Algeria. Now, maybe they will realize this after what happened in the Middle East." ...What Thing Is America?

Said Achmad Soeroto, Indonesian rickshaw driver: "At home, Americans beat Negroes... I am dark, too."

In Peru, where Nixon also was attacked, they complain about U. S. tariffs affecting Peruvian metals, about the U. S. surplus cotton taking the market away from Peruvian cotton in South America. In Japan, they complain about American tariffs on flatware, umbrella frames and other Japanese goods. In Cairo Mahmoud Mohamed Ahmed earns $30 a month as a cook. He, his wife and four children live in a tiny, two-room house sparsely furnished. He is a man with little hate. He thinks...

In India, from the intellectuals in the cities to the unsophisticated farmers in the villages, most Indians ask only two questions about U. S. foreign policy: Does America side with Pakistan or India in the Kashmir dispute, with Portugal or India on the question of Goa?

Ram Piyari is a cowherd whose water buffalo and cattle graze on the wild lawns of the marble Mogul Palace in New Delhi. He has a very original view of U. S. foreign policy:

"America wants more and more land. Even to park all their cars, they want one dead country. And to bury their dead—8 feet by 3 feet—they want new space in other countries."

From that premise Ram proceeds to this conclusion: America one day plans to conquer India through Pakistan.

In Pakistan, they like us. They find us frank and straightforward and not nearly as class conscious or imperialistic as the British.

In Jakarta, Indonesia, a man named Achmad Soeroto drives a betjak, a three-wheeled bicycle rickshaw. He is 22, a leathery, muscular figure in ragged shorts, lattered straw hat, bare feet.

He earns about 30 cents a day and pays a third of it for rent of the bike. If his fate is the same as that of most betjak boys, infection, disease or fatigue will probably kill him by the time he is 35. He votes Communist.

Achmad can't read and admits he doesn't know much about America except what he has been told and what he has seen in the movies. In the movies, he sees "every American with a big car and a house with a bathtub and toilet and other nice things."

And what has he been told?

"At home, Americans beat Negroes... I am dark, too."

Parade Float Costs Argued

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (UPI)—A decision by Marshall College's Interfraternity Council to limit the Nov. 1 homecoming parade to one float—for the queen and her court—has not been well received by students.

The council reasoned that the cost of building floats was getting out of hand. The student government cabinet protested and the college's newspaper commented: "The homecoming day parade won't float—it will probably sink."

Two Chairmen Named By Group

Two chairmen were named and the charter closed at the meeting of World War 1. Ladies Auxiliary to Barracks 1125 at the recent meeting at the VFW post home. Mrs. Chloe Reynolds presided and appointed Mrs. Grace Cross membership chairman and Mrs. Pearl Darling, hospitality chairman.

Six women were initiated. They are Mrs. Alice Lancaster, Frostburg; Mrs. Myrtle Brode, Mrs. Daisy Buskey, Mrs. Viola Combs, Mrs. Eletha Thompson and Mrs. Carrie Johnson.

James Thompson, commander of Barracks 1125, talked of "Tag Day" which will be November 10, the pension bill and other items of interest to veterans of World War 1. He announced the barracks entertain the Department Commander in December.

Prizes for the evening were won by Mrs. Combs and Mrs. Nellie Hensel. Refreshments were served during the social hour, with Mrs. Ina Smith, chairman. The assisted by Mrs. Lancaster and Mrs. Catherine Williams. Thirty members attended.

Events Briefly Noted

The Mapleside Homemakers Club will observe its Achievement Day with a covered dish luncheon Thursday at the First EUB Church, beginning at 11:30 a. m. There will be a display of articles made during the years, and the business session will begin at 1:30 p. m., featured by the election of officers.

There will be a meeting of the VFW Auxiliary today at 8 p. m. at the post home.

A roast turkey supper will be served from 5 to 7 p. m. Thursday in the Rawlings Methodist Church basement. It is open to the public.

A public ham supper will be served from 5 to 7 p. m. at the LaVale Volunteer fire auxiliary tomorrow.

The LaSalle Mothers' Club will meet at 8 p. m. today in St. Patrick's Social Center. The assisted by Mrs. Lancaster and Mrs. Catherine Williams. Thirty members attended.

Austrian Music Features Program Music, Arts Club

The music of Austria and sketches of Austrian composers featured the program of the Music and Arts Club last night at the home of Dr. Elizabeth Brings, LaVale, native of Vienna, who greeted members and guests in native costume.

The Austrian national hymn, "Not Alone for Mighty Empire," opened the program, directed by Mrs. Robert H. Mann, with Mrs. Thorne Smith at the piano.

Mrs. Witwer Richards, who has recently returned from a two-month tour of Europe, gave a resume of her stay of two weeks in Austria, supplemented by an historical sketch of the country, its rulers and customs, by Dr. Brings.

Mrs. Richards talked also on the scenic beauties of the country and gave sketches of the lives of Mozart, Brahms, and Schubert.

Dr. Brings, violinist, and Mrs. Robert Clarke, pianist, played two movements of the Mozart Sonata in B major: "Hark, Hark The Lark," Schubert and "Hark The Wind," Brahms and "In Silent Night," a Suabian folk song, were sung by a trio comprised of Mrs. Harry Butler, Miss Carol Reith and Mrs. Robert Williams, with Mrs. Samuel T. Weatherholt at the piano.

In the folk song Mrs. Vernon Cost played the violin obligato. Mrs. Allan Macy sang a group of songs from "The Children's Album," "Guter Mond," "Hort, ihr Herrn," and "Evening Song." She was accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Wolf.

Mrs. Clark, a concert pianist, closed the program with the playing of the brilliant "Concert Paraphrase" from "Gypsy Baron" by Strauss-Dohnanyi, in an equally brilliant manner.

Preceding the program Miss Dorothy Willson, president, conducted the business session, when reports were given and donations of $10 each, were voted to the Cumberland Symphony Orchestra and the Cumberland Choral Society.

The refreshments, prepared by Dr. Brings and the co-hostesses, Mrs. Howard Irwin and Mrs. Kenneth Wolf, were made from Austrian recipes. The table was centered with an arrangement of fall fruits. Miss Willson presided at the coffee table.

Guests were Mrs. Samuel Jacobson, Mrs. Paul Castelle, Mrs. Robert Gerson and Mrs. D. H. Black.

Members present were Mrs. Frank Stuart Rowe, Mrs. William L. Keller, Mrs. Carl A. Sander, Mrs. James W. Kirk, Mrs. Fay Mansfield, Mrs. E. Frederick Avers, Mrs. William B. Ludman, Mrs. Harry Parker, Mrs. John Lower, Miss Ann Dorsey, Mrs. James Grosh, Mrs. R. Monroe Harris, Mrs. John Zornig, Mrs. Ivan Hall, Mrs. Paul Baum and Mrs. Robert Bittle.

Two Officers Elected By VG Club

Two officers were elected and two parties planned at the recent meeting of the Union Grove Homemakers Club. Mrs. Albert Windish was elected vice president and Mrs. Holmes Cessna, secretary. Mrs. William Rilling presided.

A card party will be held November 27 and the Christmas party will be in the form of a covered dish dinner at the home of Mrs. Cessna, December 10. A donation of $5 was given to the United Fund.

Mrs. Steve Bowling, Mrs. Helen White and Mrs. Ruthella Fey gave reports; Mrs. John Wentling read a poem; Mrs. Richard Douglas reported on the rug training course and Mrs. White on Achievement Day. The history of the hymn, "O Jesus Thou Art Standing," was given by Mrs. Perry Ambrose.

Achievements were displayed, a white elephant sale held and Eugene McCune showed a picture entitled, "Soft Water." Halloween games were played and prizes won by Mrs. Helen Vandegrift, Mrs. Helen Burkett and Mrs. Smouse. Decorations were on the same theme. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Rilling and Mrs. Ambrose. The meeting closed with the group singing, "When the Moon Comes Over the Mountain."

Eighteen members attended. Other guests were Miss Pauline Hollihan, Mrs. Naomi Evenson and Mrs. William R. Sutphin. November hostesses will be Mrs. Pearl Dicken, Mrs. Douglas Heavner and Mrs. Leona Bennett.

The Wesleyan Guild of Centre Street Methodist Church will hold a rummage sale at 7 p. m. today in the social hall.

Pleasant Valley Homemakers will meet at 7:30 p. m. today at the home of Mrs. Earl Manges. Mrs. S. T. Robinette will speak on Family Life.

Career Women Make Best Wives, Fashion Designer's Husband Says

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Writer

Career women make the best wives, says Wesley Simpson, who is married to one.
Despite the fact that his wife Adele is one of the world's busiest women, Wesley radiates husbandly happiness and pride. Says he: "I'm sick of hearing the old argument about whether a woman should choose between a career or home. My wife handles both with one hand."

Adele Simpson, one of the top names among American fashion designers, is a tiny dynamo of 4 feet 10, who has managed to run a town house and a country estate, raise a son and a daughter, and conduct one of the country's biggest dress businesses, all without getting a hair out of place.
During the week, she gets to her office on 7th Avenue shortly after dawn, has lunch at her desk, copes with temperamental models, buyers, fashion editors and store owners all day and then goes home to entertain anywhere from two to a dozen guests at dinner.
Weekends she takes off for the Simpson country home at Greenwich, Conn., where the house, usually is full of weekend guests from Paris, Rome, London, Los Angeles or points between.

In between times she always has time to help settle the problems of her 19-year-old daughter Joan, or her 21-year-old son Jeffrey and welcome their friends at either domicile. Sometimes this amounts to an influx of 15 or 20 young people for dinner or overnight — but the Simpson manage takes them all in stride.
"If I ever had had to make the choice between home and business, I would have given up the career without a second thought, but I've just learned to budget my time, but I'm sure neither Wesley nor Adele says, "But I never had to, nor the children ever have felt no interests outside of cooking and housekeeping," says her husband, a banker. "The world's too busy with no sweat."

Bill Planned By Butler On Navy Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John Marshall Butler (R-Md.) says he will reintroduce legislation at the next session of Congress requiring the Navy to spend 75 per cent of its conversion, alteration and repair funds in private shipyards.
The bill would be identical to one introduced by Butler this year and which died when Congress adjourned. The Maryland Republican said he already has been pledged support from senators of 11 other states in co-sponsoring the measure.

The Navy has said it has responded to the need of private yards for additional work by making large-scale assignments of overhaul and repair work, as well as new construction and conversion.
In recent years, the Navy says, private yards have received a larger dollar volume of repair work, as well as of construction and conversion, than ever before in peacetime.

The Navy contends the Butler proposal would dissipate the capabilities of naval shipyards which are strategically dispersed along coastal areas to provide comprehensive logistics support. It says naval shipyards are under direct Navy control and not subject to strikes and jurisdictional disputes.

'Blind' Drive Cars, Receive Welfare Grant

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—State Public Assistance Director Thomas R. Egbert disclosed today that 20 persons who have driver's licenses have been receiving West Virginia welfare benefits for the blind.

Payments have been halted pending further investigation, Egbert said, adding that six of the 20 own automobiles. "It is reasonable to believe that if a person can see well enough to drive a car, he can do other work," he observed.

State law regarding benefits to the blind does not stipulate that a recipient be totally blind, but under the regulations, to be eligible he would have to be about 80 per cent blind, Egbert said.

West Virginia Forest Color Spectacular

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—The array of colors displayed by nature in West Virginia this week goes without equal.

A look in almost any direction provides a view of one of nature's magnificent wonders—the turning of leaves.

West Virginia's vast area of woodlands, especially in the eastern regions of the state along the Allegheny Mountain range, is a spectacle to behold.

A clear crisp autumn day, this past Sunday was ripe for sightseers. Native West Virginians and visitors from other states took to the little-traveled mountain roads to beyond the sights.

Throughout this week others, with a day off from work and a yen for a last look at the outdoors before winter, joined in the parade. Still others will make similar trips next weekend, weather permitting for football trips or on hunting expeditions and will find the beauty in its final hours of glory.

Eastern Panhandle residents in search of a display of the wonders of nature can travel U. S. 220 through the Caanan Valley through Petersburg to the junction of U. S. 33, then west to Elkins to U. S. 219 and north to U. S. 50 and back east again.

Sales Tax Refunds Loom After Court Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State of Maryland probably will be required to refund about one and a half million dollars in sales taxes as a result of a U. S. Supreme Court ruling yesterday.

The high court refused to review a decision which denied the State had authority, prior to Jan. 23, 1957 to impose a sales tax on defense industries operating under facilities contracts with the federal government.

At the request of Gov. McKeldin, the 1957 General Assembly enacted a bill to close a so-called loophole in the sales and use tax laws. The measure specified that the State could collect taxes on certain types of equipment and machinery used in government contracts.

A clause in the bill made it retroactive to July 1, 1947 and this was ruled unconstitutional by Maryland courts.

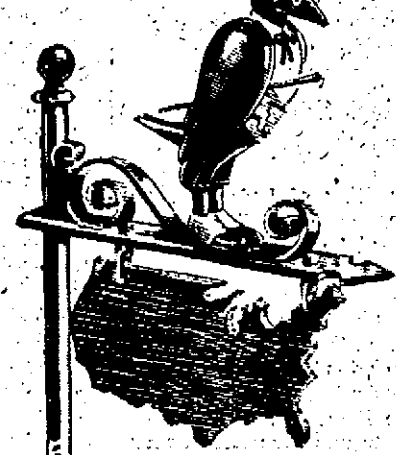

Judge John E. Raine Jr. of Baltimore County Circuit Court was the first to rule against the State. He said if the new law was allowed "any judicial protection for taxpayers would be transitory, good only until the next legislative session."

Volcano Starts Fires

KAPALA, Uganda (UPI) — A volcano in the Belgian Congo near the Uganda border has set thousands of acres of equatorial jungle on fire, it was reported today.

Keyser GOP Women To Plan
For Gov. Underwood's Visit

KEYSER — The Mineral County Republican Women's Club will meet this evening at the Court House.

Mrs. Harold Snyder, president, said a report will be submitted on the club's recent campaign and details and arrangements for Gov. Underwood's visit to Keyser will be outlined.

Rally and reception has been planned for Governor Underwood when he visits Keyser on Tuesday, October 21, according to Miss Madelyn Bazzle, program chairman, for the GOP Club, sponsor of the Governor's visit.

The rally will begin at 8 p. m. (EDT), with Governor Underwood delivering the principal address, in the Keyser High School Auditorium.

Following the rally the Women's Club will host at a reception honoring the governor and party in Keyser High School gymnasium.

The general committee for the affair includes James A. Dixon, county chairman, Mrs. Snyder, and John W. Chapman, president of the Young Republican Club.

The High School Band has been engaged for the evening.

An invitation has been extended to all the counties of the Second Congressional district, with many others planning caravans to Keyser on October 21. One group, planning to attend is the recently organized Teen Age Young Republican Club of Martinsburg, one of the most active in the state.

Gov. Underwood
To Talk At Meet

PARKERSBURG, W. Va. (UPI) — Gov. Cecil H. Underwood and Moose national director general Paul P. Schmitz, Mooseheart, Ill., will be among principal speakers for the 25th annual West Virginia Moose Assn. convention opening here Thursday.

Also scheduled to speak during the four-day session are regional director J. Jack Stoehr and assistant regional director J. John Stoehr, both of Pittsburgh.

Junior Majorettes
Selected At Beall

FROSTBURG — The senior majorettes of Beall High School met recently and selected the junior majorettes to serve for the coming year. Sandra Fresh was chosen as drum majorette with Peggy Lewis serving as captain.

Others are Johann Lewis, Sandra Green, Barbara Walker, and Wilda Spiker. Alternates are Carolyn Minnick and Tina Carling.

PARSONS — Members of the WSCS and the Wesleyan Service Guild of St. John's Methodist Church in Parsons, opened a study course in the new educational building of the church last night, according to Mrs. Homer Peters, president of the WSCS.

Classes will start at 7:30 p. m. and continue for four consecutive Mondays.

Members of the WSCS and the Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church in Parsons have been invited to attend the classes.

The basic text book, "Understanding Other Cultures of the World," written by Ina Corinne Brown, a teacher at Scarritt College, Nashville, Tenn., is being taught by Mrs. Peters.

The supplementary work, such as display work and visual aids, is under the supervision of Mrs. Donald Buchanan, chairman of missionary education and service in the WSCS.

Mrs. Gilmore and Mrs. Buchanan are in charge of the worship service each evening.

Monday night's topic was "How Big is Your Mirror" and was preceded by a movie.

Garden Club Meets

Members of the Mountaineer Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Ernest Price with Mrs. Jerry DiBacco assisting the hostess.

Mrs. W. Kermit Collett was program chairman and spoke on "Gathered Seed Pods and Dried Materials" and exhibited four arrangements of dried material from fungus and driftwood.

Mrs. Ernest Price, chairman of ways and means committee, stated that $12.05 was netted by the club as its share of a recent cake walk.

Mrs. Howard Barb, president, and Mrs. James Michael, vice president, will attend the Monongahela-Cheat District meeting of the West Virginia Garden Clubs to be held in Buckhannon on tomorrow.

Mrs. Michael was named a member of the project committee to replace Mrs. William Johns who is moving from Parsons.

Mrs. W. Kermit Collett was named the outstanding gardener of the year.

It was announced that the club has been invited to join with the River City Garden Club of Parsons at their workshop to be held in the Presbyterian Church on December 11. The district president will be present to conduct the meeting. The River City Garden Club each year makes Christmas arrangements for shut-ins.

The November 4 meeting will be combined with a workshop at which time members will make gifts for the patients in Tucker County Hospital at Thanksgiving. Mrs. Paul Flanagan was a guest at the meeting.

W. Va. Senate
Nominee Raps
Demo Charges

WEIRTON, W. Va. (UPI) — Sen. Chapman Revercomb, U. S. Senate nominee said Monday night that Democratic charges against the Eisenhower administration concerning its handling of the country's economic problems have not been "backed up with facts."

The Charleston Republican told a Hancock County rally here Democrats have charged that the administration "has failed to exercise forceful leadership in dealing with the economic problems that confront our country."

"It is interesting to note, however," Revercomb said, "that these charges are not backed up with facts. Regardless of what anyone may say or write, this country has enjoyed its greatest peacetime progress in history since 1933."

Charging that "professional pessimists have attempted to talk the country into a depression for their own political gain," Revercomb said labor "has fared better during the past six years than during any comparable period in the history of the country."

He added that "for the country as a whole 1958 is going to be a good year and 1959 promises to be the best year in the nation's history."

Meeting Thursday

FROSTBURG — The Frostburg Business Association will meet Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in the conference room of Fidelity Bank, according to Robert Hohing, president.

Rohrbough Still Believes
Job Should Be Appointive

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — Although he was elected to the position, Virgil R. Rohrbough said Monday he firmly believed the state school superintendent should be an appointive official.

"I am even more dedicated to this cause since my election," Rohrbough said. "Throughout my more than 25 years as a school administrator, I have continually stumbled to have the job made an appointive one."

Rohrbough, endorsing a proposed constitutional amendment that would make the top public school job an appointive post, observed that in 19 states where the school systems are headed by appointed superintendents, the quality of education is higher than formerly.

Byrd Seeking Federal Aid
For Industry

WEIRTON, W. Va. (UPI) — Rep. Robert C. Byrd, Democratic nominee for the U. S. Senate, said here Monday night the country needed laws to alleviate unemployment in hard-pressed industrial areas.

Byrd said that the more he traveled and "the more I see of the dormant or retarded conditions of much industrial employment in West Virginia, the more I am convinced that aid-for-depressed areas legislation is a necessity."

The Sophia Democrat said President Eisenhower did West Virginia and other states suffering from chronic unemployment "a terrible disservice when he pocket-vetted the aid-for-depressed areas measure passed by the Congress during the recent session."

Byrd said the President's veto was "a misguided and misdirected exercise of his powers" and that he would "personally reintroduce" the bill if elected to the Senate.

TIERNEY JAILED — Patrolman Louis Romano questions former movie actor Lawrence Tierney in the West 54th Street Police Station in New York. Tierney was arrested after a bruising battle with Romano and another policeman on Sixth Avenue after they had ejected him from a bar. All three were given treatment at a hospital and released.

The victory scored by Jane Schiller in the Lillian Payne Cup tournament of the Maryland State Golf Association last week at the Congressional Country Club (near Washington) was no surprise to Cumberland's Jean Bibby.

Mrs. Bibby has been predicting big things of the coming 19-year-old Jane Schiller old miss from Salisbury ever since the two played together in several tournaments early this year.

It was Jane, it will be recalled, who developed a case of the jitters this past June in the second round of the Women's Invitation tournament at the Cumberland Country Club. The University of Maryland co-ed let a seven-stroke lead get away, finishing second to Mrs. Claude Richards of Westminster.

In last week's event, the cute teen-ager with personality to match her long game, came from three strokes back to win the 84-hole medal number.

That she is learning to conquer herself was shown by the three consistent rounds she turned in—83, 83, 82.

Baltimore's Mary Ann Downey and Mrs. Maurice Glick have won this tournament nine times between them. Miss Downey passed it up this year but Mrs. Glick led for the first two rounds, only to be halted by the smiling Salisbury shooter in the finale.

"Jane was a mighty happy girl when she followed Mrs. Glick in the last round and discovered that she was one stroke ahead," Mrs. Bibby said in discussing the showing made by Miss Schiller last week.

The Eastern Shore's "first lady of the links" told this writer after the June journey at the Cumberland Country Club that she regards Mrs. Bibby as a steady influence on her game. This was brought out by her last round of 82 in the Payne Cup when the two played together.

But even after she was told her three-day total of 248 was one stroke better than Mrs. Glick, Jane had to do a bit of sweating. Mrs. Frank Cuth of Washington was still on the course and still had a chance to win it all. Mrs. Cuth, the District of Columbia amateur champion, three-pulled four greens in the final round and wound up in a tie with Mrs. Glick.

"Jane knows her weak points and is working hard to overcome them," Mrs. Bibby declared. "She has a wonderful attitude toward the game and is bound to improve with experience gained on the tournament circuit."

In winning her first major tournament, Miss Schiller became the first teen-ager to take the Payne Cup.

In addition to Mrs. Bibby, three other members of the Cumberland Country Club took part in the Congressional tournament. They were Mrs. Royce Hodges, who finished first in the third class; Mrs. Evelyn Bowie, who was in the fifth; and Mrs. Richard Trevas, who was third in the fourth class. Mrs. Bibby was seventh in the first class. Mrs. Trevas was appearing in her first big tourney.

Injuries Hit Number Of College Grid Teams

Wolverines, Irish, SMU Affected By 'Injury Bug'

By JACK CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer

Winning football games can be tough enough without losing players who are as valuable as life insurance.

This is the problem facing quite a few coaches today as they begin prepping for Saturday's games. Take Notre Dame's Terry Brennan. The Irish coach must recoup his lads from their 14-2 loss to Army last Saturday, and at the same time prepare for a dangerous Duke team. To add to this, he will probably be without the services of Norm Odyniec, converted from fullback to halfback for the Army game because of his running prowess.

Shoulder Bruised
Odyniec out with a bruised shoulder. Brennan must rely on Jim Crotty, whose place Odyniec took against Army, in being completely mended from a leg and thigh injury.

The Irish, winners of two games before meeting Army, have not been an offensive powerhouse as in the past. They have scored just 34 points, allowing only 21. Brennan had his strongest, though not his fastest, backfield of the season against Army.

Michigan's Bennie Oosterbaan has lost fullback John Herrnstein for the season, because of injuries suffered in the Wolves' 20-14 loss to Navy.

That was the Wolverines' first loss after a 20-19 victory over California and a 12-12 tie against Michigan State. The big senior fullback figured heavily in both and his replacement, Tony Rio, will have to carry the burden, against predominantly Big 10 teams from now on.

Meredith On Crutches
Bill Meek's Southern Methodist team won its first of the year against Missouri 32-19 Saturday, and without ace quarterback and passer, Don Meredith. Meredith is on crutches after being injured in the 14-6 loss to Notre Dame Oct. 4.

Whether he will be available for Saturday's Rice game is questionable. Meek also is hoping to have end Ray Sherer, injured when SMU lost to Ohio State 23-20, in an effort to keep his offense in high gear.

Minnesota, winless in three games by a total of 13 points, lost fullback Arlie Bonstad, leading ground-gainer in Saturday's 7-3 loss to Northwestern, and fullback Roger Hagburg. The Gophers play winless (0-3) Illinois Saturday.

Washington State plays defense-minded Oregon Saturday minus quarterback Bobby Newman, who has helped his team account for 90 points in four games, for a 2-2 record. Newman was injured against Idaho Saturday and is out as WSC's offense.

Ivy League Has Troubles
The Ivy League has its share of trouble too, but with a ray of sunshine. Princeton lost tailback Dan Sachs for at least three weeks when he hurt his back against Penn. His replacement, John L. Sullivan, proved more than adequate in leading the Tigers to a 20-14 win, their second straight after a 28-0 loss to Rutgers.

Brown probably will play Penn this Saturday without fullback Bob Carlin, the Bruins' most consistent performer. Elsewhere, Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson kept only fullback Prentice Gault in the first team backfield after the 15-14 upset loss to Texas. He also moved three men into the first team line for the Kansas game Saturday. Boston College (1-2) will have to do without quarterback Don Allard against Marquette, and Coach Mike Holovak will have to dig deep as two other first line quarterbacks also are unavailable because of injuries.

Orioles Buy Jim Finigan
BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles today announced the purchase of infielder Jim Finigan from their Vancouver farm club in the Pacific Coast League.

The 30-year-old native of Quincy, Ill., is a veteran of more than four seasons in the major leagues. His first season in the majors was his best, hitting .302 with the Philadelphia Athletics in 1954.

Finigan later saw service with Kansas City and Detroit before being traded last January to San Francisco of the National League. He appeared in 23 games with the Giants and then was sent down to their Phoenix farm club in the Pacific Coast League, where he hit .280.

Vancouver obtained Finigan from Phoenix last week in a trade start yesterday, the opening of the 12-day meet finding 6,912 fans betting $469,661, both marks surpassing the inaugural of a year ago. . . . Marlboro is the kingpin of Maryland's small tracks and three years ago established an all-time daily average betting high of $471,000. . . . And still on racing, apprentice jockey Ray Baccare and the former Barbara Fontello of Cumberland were married last Saturday at Charles Town. . . . Fort Hill moved into third place in the CHAMP AGAIN—Glenn Hill of Cumberland is the champion driver of Fort Ashby's Potomac Valley Speedway for the third straight year. The local stock car driver copped the title this year with 149 points. Lou Leatherman of Fort Ashby was runnerup.

Hill Again Top Driver

Cumberland's Glenn Hill wrapped up the driving championship of the Potomac Valley Speedway for the third straight year by amassing a total of 149 points.

Hill, who has been driving stock cars for the past six years, has more than a 100 race wins to his credit. The 29-year-old "stock jockey" was victorious in two trophy events this year but a mishap two Sundays ago prevented him from taking part in the final program of the season at the Fort Ashby track this past Sunday.

In marking up his third point title in a row, Hill piloted a 1934 Ford coupe powered by a 1953 Studebaker engine. He is employed by the Super Concrete Company.

Second to Hill in the 1958 scoring was Lou Leatherman of Fort Ashby. Other top drivers for the year at Potomac Valley were Ken Jeffries, Lonaconing; Ollie Beckman, Oakland; Les Garlick, Cumberland; Al Gatto, Cumberland; Stan Dantzic, Keyser; Red Fredericks, Mt. Lake Park; and Gene Keister, Cresaptown.

Steelers Ready For Cleveland

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—A cry of "bring on the Browns" was in evidence today as the Pittsburgh Steelers returned to the practice field to prep for Sunday's clash with the Cleveland Browns in the Ohio city.

Almost to the man, the Steelers oozed with new confidence attributed mainly to their new quarterback Bobby Layne. They felt certain the Blonde Bomber from Texas would help them average a 45-12 thumping administered by the Browns here two Sundays ago.

Only injuries on the Pittsburgh squad were to tackle Ernie Stautner, defensive back Richie McCabe and guard Bill Krisher. Stautner had x-rays taken for a shoulder bruise. McCabe was limping on a sore leg and Krisher, the rookie All-American from Oklahoma, still was receiving treatment for a head cut that required seven stitches.

Ford, Miller Top Loops In Earned Runs

NEW YORK (AP)—Southpaw Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees captured the American League earned run title in 1958 for the second time in his career.

It also marked the fifth time in the past seven seasons that a Yankee pitcher has finished on top of the ERA listings.

Ford posted a 2.01 ERA, figures compiled by The Associated Press disclosed today. The 29-year-old hurler, who led the league with a 2.47 mark in 1956, allowed 49 earned runs in 219 innings.

Miller Leads National

Stu Miller, a slow-ball pitcher for the San Francisco Giants, recorded the lowest earned run average in the National League, 2.47. The journeyman performer, who also has seen service with the St. Louis Cards and Philadelphia Phils, gave up 50 earned tallies in 182 frames.

A pitcher must work at least 154 innings to be eligible for earned run honors.

Ford won 14 games and lost 7, but was hampered by a sore arm in the last month of the season. Nevertheless, the sturdy lefty completed 15 of his 29 starts, including seven shutouts — tops in both leagues.

Pierce Runnerup

Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox was runnerup to Ford with 2.68, having yielded 73 un-limited markers in 245 innings. Detroit's Frank Lary and Baltimore's Jack Harshman were tied for third with 2.90 each while Billy O'Dell of Baltimore ranked fifth at 2.97.

Miller sported a lack-luster 6-9 won-lost record. His six victories were the fewest ever produced by a major league earned run list. The 30-year-old right-hander, closed last, however, permitting just 12 earned runs in his last 61 innings.

Sam Jones of the Cards, the NL strikeout kingpin, trailed Miller with a 2.88 ERA. He was touched for 80 earned runs in 250 innings. Milwaukee's Lew Burdette was third at 2.91, followed by teammate Warren Spahn with 3.07. The Phils' Robin Roberts and the Giants' Johnny Antonelli were tied for fifth with 3.27 apiece.

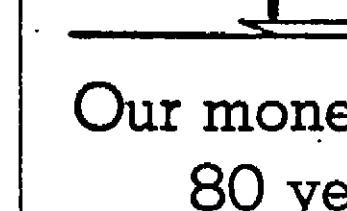

Clyde King Named New Redleg Coach

CINCINNATI (UPI)—Clyde King will return to the major leagues next season as the Cincinnati Redlegs' pitching coach. The former Dodger relief ace was the personal selection of new Cincinnati Manager Mayo Smith, who labeled King "one of the best pitching instructors" in baseball.

Oyster Bowl Bound

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI)—Navy will play in the annual "Oyster Bowl" Shrine game at Norfolk through 1962. Navy meets Tulane in the bowl encounter this Saturday and faces Syracuse next year. Future opponents will be announced at a later date.

Bill Yeoman, captain of Army's 1948 football team, is an assistant football coach at Michigan State.

Meet Jerry: Lynch Finds Self, Hitting .312 In '58

This is the third in a series on major league personalities who will appear here Sunday with Dick Groat's barnstorming major leaguers against the Pen-Mar All-Stars of Penn Avenue Field.

The season of 1958 was one of reckoning for Gerald Thomas (Jerry) Lynch who came into his own as a major league outfielder with the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Drafted by the Redlegs December 3, 1956 after the Pittsburgh Pirates had released him to Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League two months earlier, Lynch pounded the ball at a .312 clip this year for the tenth best batting average in the National League.

The 28-year-old outfielder appeared in only 67 games with the Redlegs last year and finished with a lowly .258 average. Jerry, however, was sure he could become a major league regular if given a chance and told Birdie Tebbetts, then the Cincinnati manager as much. Tebbetts gave Lynch his chance and the one-time Yankee farmhand lost little time in proving his claim.

Jerry, who can also catch, played in 122 games this year and went to bat officially 420 times. Included in his 131 hits were 16 homers. He batted in 68 runs.

Lynch, who throws right and bats left, broke into organized ball with Greenville, S. C. of the Cotton States League in 1950. He was in military service for two years and in 1953 went to Norfolk in the Piedmont League. He was drafted by the Pirates in 1953 and the following year appeared in 36 games for the Bucs.

Lynch hit .239 for the Pirates in 1954 and in 88 games the following year compiled a .284 mark. On the disabled list for most of the 1956 season, he played in only 19 games and wound up with a lowly .158.

Duke, Virginia Facing Tough Weekend Foes

By The Associated Press

No one could blame Atlantic Coast Conference football coaches Dick Voris and Bill Murray if they longed for open dates this weekend.

Come Saturday, Voris' Virginia Cavaliers take on undefeated Army which, as Notre Dame can report, is bad enough. Added to this, Voris probably won't have the services of his ace quarterback, Reece Whitley.

The picture isn't much brighter for Murray's Duke Blue Devils. They'll be clashing with Notre Dame, still highly regarded despite the Army defeat.

Murray said one of the major problems presented will be to stop Nick Pietrosante, the big fullback averages five yards a carry.

As preparations got under way yesterday, the Duke coach indicated he may make more use Saturday of his new "lonesome end"—sprint star Dave Sims.

Voris said it is doubtful that Whitley, the ACC's offensive leader, will be able to play against Army. Whitley appeared at practice on crutches. He is being treated for an ankle sprain and swollen knee, both results of the Virginia Tech game.

Maryland opened practice for its game at North Carolina following a half-hour pep talk by Coach Tommy Mont. The Terrapins who have lost three out of four, worked on both offense and defense.

Tar Heel Coach Jim Tatum, meanwhile, continued trying to bolster both his quarterback and fullback slots. He had Henry Clement and Babe Walton each directing the second unit while former signal-caller Nelson Lowe ran from fullback.

Boxer Kayoes Two Foes In 3 1/2 Minutes

WEST JORDAN, Utah (AP)—Methodical Lamar Clark of Cedar City, Utah, dusted the canvas with two heavyweight opponents here Monday night in less time than it took him to put on his gloves.

Clark hopes the two first-round knockouts will win attention from boxing promoters and perhaps give him a main event this winter. The 181-pound brawler knocked out Ricky Smith, 181, Alameda, Calif., and Oscar Talley, 179, Oakland, Calif., in a total of 3 minutes, 27 seconds. He floored Smith twice in the first round before catching him with a looping right for a knockout in 2:32.

Taking only the customary time allowed between bouts, Clark then sent Talley crashing into the ropes with a flurry of lefts, and then hooked a left that dropped the Californian for good in :55.

Meet Jerry: Lynch Finds Self, Hitting .312 In '58

This is the third in a series on major league personalities who will appear here Sunday with Dick Groat's barnstorming major leaguers against the Pen-Mar All-Stars of Penn Avenue Field.

The season of 1958 was one of reckoning for Gerald Thomas (Jerry) Lynch who came into his own as a major league outfielder with the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Drafted by the Redlegs December 3, 1956 after the Pittsburgh Pirates had released him to Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League two months earlier, Lynch pounded the ball at a .312 clip this year for the tenth best batting average in the National League.

The 28-year-old outfielder appeared in only 67 games with the Redlegs last year and finished with a lowly .258 average. Jerry, however, was sure he could become a major league regular if given a chance and told Birdie Tebbetts, then the Cincinnati manager as much. Tebbetts gave Lynch his chance and the one-time Yankee farmhand lost little time in proving his claim.

Jerry, who can also catch, played in 122 games this year and went to bat officially 420 times. Included in his 131 hits were 16 homers. He batted in 68 runs.

Lynch, who throws right and bats left, broke into organized ball with Greenville, S. C. of the Cotton States League in 1950. He was in military service for two years and in 1953 went to Norfolk in the Piedmont League. He was drafted by the Pirates in 1953 and the following year appeared in 36 games for the Bucs.

Lynch hit .239 for the Pirates in 1954 and in 88 games the following year compiled a .284 mark. On the disabled list for most of the 1956 season, he played in only 19 games and wound up with a lowly .158.

His spurt this year added 20 points to his lifetime major league batting average which now stands at .278.

The Cincinnati star goes an inch over the six-foot mark and tips the scales at 185 pounds. He will play third base in the game here which will be played for the benefit of a Little League park for Cumberland. The contest is being sponsored by the Dapper Dan Club.

Tickets are on sale at the Sports Shoppe, Cas Taylor's Tavern, Wilson Hardware Company, Nu-Way Shoe Shop, Knights of Columbus Home, Spa Bar, Galen's Tavern, Goodfellowship Club and Geatz' Cafe.

Challengers Gain In ACC Offense Race

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP) — Virginia quarterback Reece Whitely continues to lead the Atlantic Coast Conference in individual offense, but his challengers made marked gains last weekend. Whitely, injured on the sixth play of the game, managed to pick up only 38 yards passing against Virginia Tech.

Whitely, according to ACC Service Bureau figures, now has 538 total yards in four games, well ahead of the pace he must maintain to break the conference total offense record of 1,038 yards. But a lead which was 200 yards last weekend has been cut in half.

Harvey White, Clemson's junior quarterback who led Tiger comeback victory over Vanderbilt last Saturday night, ran and passed for 165 yards to move into second place in the total offense rankings with 450 yards. Norman Sneed, Wake Forest's sophomore quarterback, picked up 101 yards running and passing against N. C. State to bring his third-place total to 436 yards.

Duke's Wray Carlton turned in last weekend's No. 1 rushing effort, gaining 111 net yards in victory over Baylor. This moved him to the No. 1 spot in the rushing department and to fourth in total offense. Whitely also maintained his lead in individual passing with a total of 42 completions for 497 yards and three touchdowns.

Jim Joyce, Maryland's fullback, is 10th among the rushers with 164 yards in 44 carries. Quarterbacks Bob Rusevlyan and Dickie Lewis are among the first 10 passers. Rusevlyan is 5th with 20 completions in 33 throws and Lewis is 10th with 8 for 16.

Blaik Dreams Up 'Lonely' Offense Under Florida Sun

By WILL GRIMSLEY

WEST POINT, N. Y. (AP) — Army Coach Red Blaik dreamed up his new celebrated "lonely end" offense while basking in the Florida sun last winter.

He didn't have a name for it then. It was tacked on later by Stanley Woodward, sports editor of the Newark Star-Ledger.

Then others changed it to "lonely end."

Blaik's own assistants were skeptical at first. There was some nervousness before using it in the first game against South Carolina, which had beaten Duke the week before.

These fears diminished when South Carolina was smashed 45-8 and Penn State beaten 26-0. They completely evaporated after the 14-2 victory last Saturday over Notre Dame, raising Army to the No. 1 ranking in the country. "We couldn't have beaten Notre Dame without it," says Blaik.

Army's "lonely end" is Bill Carpenter, a 6-foot-2, 205-pound mauler and sprinter from Springfield, Pa. Instead of lining up with the rest of the team he parks himself 18 to 25 yards away near the sidelines.

Many teams have split their ends and sent the wingman out wide on "sleeper" plays. But Army's "lonely end" is different. He sets up housekeeping out on the flank.

He doesn't even go into the huddle. He gets the plays by some device which is top secret and classified info at the academy. The main value is that the offense is unable to solidify its defense. The secondary can't be used to close formation and, as a result, can't support the line as quickly. In other words, the enemy must send out a "lonely" halfback or two to keep the end company.

Frank Ocek, third base coach of the Pittsburgh Pirates, will manage Aguilas in the Dominican Republic League this winter.

Where Is He Now? Rolfe Dartmouth Athletic Leader

By United Press International

Red Rolfe, a great third baseman who spent his entire major league playing — career with the New York Yankees, played in six World Series and on four world championship teams. He came up briefly as a shortstop in 1931 and came back in '34 as a third baseman — shortstop but soon became the Yankee regular at third. Three times during his nine year career he was named the American League's all star third baseman. In 1949, Rolfe came back to the majors as manager of the Detroit Tigers for three seasons, finishing second in '50.

Whatever happened to Red Rolfe? Now a few days short of 50, Rolfe is athletic director at his alma mater, Dartmouth College of Hanover, N. H.

'Pappy' Put On Spot By Poor Record

By FRED FERRIS

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Art (Pappy) Lewis is on the biggest spot—or the tiniest, depending on the way you look at it—since he became West Virginia University football coach in 1950.

Not since that weary first year has a Lewis team started a season with as poor a record as this fall. The Mountaineers stand 1-3 going into what annually is a "crucial" struggle for West Virginia, as far as its avid followers are concerned—against Pitt Saturday in Pittsburgh.

The "wolves" have howled several times during Lewis' reign, which this fall ties the record for longevity among West Virginia coaches.

The avid Mountaineers followers were given a taste of "blood" in the form of national prominence — under Pappy, and they liked it. Anything less is not palatable to them. Pappy's servings of fame in past years went down well, but those who ate it up insist on fresh food.

It is ironical that the Pitt game comes along at this turn of the season. If the Mountaineers win it, Pappy will be back in good graces. But if Pappy loses it, there will be a lot of sour people.

This is the ulcer-producing lot of many a coach, particularly Lewis. The team wins a game, the coach loses it.

Little to Start With

During Lewis' first season eight years ago, he had to do with leftovers and no one blamed him for a 2-8 record. He promised better things when his own boys, recruited in his unmatched manner, developed. The following year, things already were looking up. The record was 5-5.

Even a 21-7 loss to Pitt in 1950 was considered a moral victory. And a 32-12 defeat in 1951 wasn't too bad to take.

The '52 season opened on an air of optimism but gloom fell after a 22-14 loss to Furman in the first game. However, the futility of that game gave birth to a Mountaineer great of the future, quarterback Fred Wyant.

Four games later, Wyant led a stunning 16-0 upset of Pitt. Here was the "blood." Mountaineers fans were hungry for it. The Mountaineers stormed on to a 7-2 record. Pappy was king. In 1953—the year Lewis' recruits were seniors—a 17-7 opening victory over Pitt led to the Sugar Bowl.

That was where the wolves appeared without disguise. A 42-19 loss to Georgia Tech was blamed to Lewis. He came back with a team that produced an 8-1 record in 1954, but WVU fans were only mildly pleased. Because that lone loss was to Pitt, 13-10.

Pitt Ended Streak

Came 1956 and a rollicking seven-game win streak and an average of 34 points scored per game. The string led to Pitt Stadium, and that's where it ran out before 58,000 fans. The Panthers ran over the Mountaineers 26-7. Lewis was in the doghouse again and the 8-2 season record, which included a loss to Syracuse after Pitt, didn't satisfy the fickle followers.

Yanks' Duren Apologizes, Crandall Burns Over Fine

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

NEW YORK—Ryne Duren apologized to umpire Charley Berry today and said he'll "gladly" pay a $250 fine but Del Crandall angrily insisted it was "unfair" to fine 22 Braves players $50 apiece because of a World Series leak.

The fines were imposed by commissioner Ford Frick. Duren drew his for a "choke-up" gesture directed by Berry during the sixth game of the series while the 22 Milwaukee players were hit for disclosing how they had voted to divide their series money.

Duren had said after the sixth game he didn't remember making the derisive choke — up sign at Berry and he repeated that assertion at his San Antonio, Tex., home Monday night.

"They told me I put my hand to my throat when I was arguing with Berry but I honestly don't remember doing it," said the bespectacled Yankee relief ace.

"If I did do it, then I certainly am sorry it happened and I want to apologize sincerely to Charley Berry. I'm not angry about the fine. I'll pay it gladly with the biggest smile you ever saw. This has been my happiest season in baseball. Nothing can mar it."

No Hard Feelings

"Nobody likes to lose $250, but if I did something wrong then I guess I deserve to pay it. I have no hard feelings against anyone."

The incident for which Duren was fined occurred in the last half of the 10th inning during the sixth series game played in Milwaukee. The Yankees were ahead, 4-2, and the count was 3-2 on Johnny Logan when Duren threw a fast ball which Berry called "ball four."

Duren stormed off the mound shouting at the umpire. On his way back to the rubber, he turned in Berry's direction and put his hand on his neck, implying the umpire had "choked up" because he did not have the courage to call a close strike against a Milwaukee player before a partisan Braves crowd.

Berry did not see Duren's gesture himself because his vision was obscured by Yankee catcher Yogi Berra, but two other umpires, who were not identified, did and urged Berry to report it to the commissioner.

Berry did so and Duren received official notification of the fine at San Antonio Monday. The fine will be deducted from Duren's winning World Series share which should come to approximately $8,700.

Although the Yankee pitcher took the fine with a smile, Crandall didn't.

"Not Fair," Crandall Says

"We're being made the goats," said the Milwaukee team captain when informed that he along with 21 other Braves' players were being assessed $50 each.

"It's not quite fair," Crandall added. "That information could have come from other sources. Lots of people knew about the

Aussies Add Golf Title To Proud Record

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—World record miler Herb Elliott . . . Davis Cup . . . Olympic swimming champs . . . British Open golf championship—and now the world amateur team championship of golf.

That's the proud sports record today of Australia, a country with a population of only about 10 million.

The Aussies added the amateur golf title and won the Eisenhower Trophy by defeating the United States in an 18-hole playoff over St. Andrews' Old Course Monday.

The Australians had a 222 total and the United States 234. The teams had tied with 918 strokes after 72 holes ending last Saturday.

Twenty-nine nations competed. In the playoff, Australia's Peter Toogood shot 39-38-75, Bruce Devlin 37-35-72, Bob Stevens 40-38-78, and Doug Bachli 37-41-78.

On the American team, U.S. National Amateur champion Charlie Coe, Oklahoma City, had a 38-35-73; Billy Joe Patton, Morganton, N.C., 38-37-75; Dr. Frank (Bud) Taylor, Pomona, Calif., 39-37-76; and Bill Hyndweight contender Vince Martinezman, Philadelphia, 40-38-78. The low three scores counted towards the team aggregate.

Torres Gets Fifth Kayo

NEW YORK (UPI)—Middleweight Jose Torres, who scored his seventh straight professional victory Monday night, will meet Burke Emery, Canadian light heavyweight, at St. Nicholas Arena, Nov. 3.

Rangy, young Torres of Puerto Rico blasted Frankie (Kid) Anselm of Philadelphia to the canvas twice Monday night for a knockout at 2:12 of the ninth round in St. Nick's.

Torres, weighing 138½ pounds to Anselm's 156, floored Frankie with a right to the jaw in the third round, and again in the ninth with a right to the chin. Referee Arthur Mercante called it a "knockout" without bothering to count over the prostrate Anselm.

It was the fifth kayo in seven starts for 22-year-old Torres, stablemate of heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson. And it was the 14th defeat and fifth kayo in 39 bouts for Anselm, who had tried to force the fighting in every round and had suffered a severe battering from his taller opponent.

League Honors Dick Longfellow

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI)—West Virginia University senior quarterback Dick Longfellow was named Player of the Week for the Southern Conference today.

Longfellow who smashed the Southern Conference's single-game total offense in a losing 36-30 battle with Boston University Saturday sparked a Mountaineer fourth quarter rally which scored 22 points.

He netted a total of 307 yards as he passed for two touchdowns and ran another while throwing three extra point conversions. The old single-game conference mark was 287 set last season by Bill Baker of Furman.

The Spencer, W. Va. resident notched a pair of West Virginia records in total offense and passing yardage, with 234 yards through the air. His 19 completions tied another Mountaineer mark.

The performance exceeded others turned in by Virginia Tech's Billy Holsclaw, Davidson's Paul Barbee and William and Mary's Elliot Schaubach, to tie for runner-up honors.

'Pappy' Put

(Continued from Page 12) everything but the score in a 14-13 opening defeat at the hands of Pitt in 1956, there were few who blamed Lewis. But for many fans, the rest of the season was a matter of formality to complete for a 6-4 record, with losses to Syracuse, Penn State and Miami producing mumbblings of discontent.

Last year they were after Pappy again when the Mountaineers were battered by Wisconsin in the third game. A one-sided defeat by Penn State produced louder criticism, and up came the Pitt game. The Mountaineers whipped the Panthers 7-6 and Lewis was a jolly good fellow again after follow-up wins over Wake Forest and Syracuse.

Big things were expected this fall—in spite of Lewis' cautions to the contrary—and after an opening win over Richmond, consecutive defeats by Oklahoma, Indiana and Boston University have Pappy behind the eight ball again. Saturday's Pitt game is more "crucial" than it ever has been for him.

Stan Drobnic, Michigan State tennis coach, was Big Ten singles champion in 1952.

Army Grabs First Place In AP And UPI Ratings

NEW YORK (AP)—About the surest way to move to the top of the weekly Associated Press national football ranking is for an unbeaten team to knock off a hitherto unbeaten Notre Dame team, and that's just what Army did.

The Cadets, on the strength of their 14-2 victory Saturday, were voted into the No. 1 spot today by the sports writers and sportscasters participating in the poll. Auburn, still unbeaten, slipped to second place. The Cadets received 77 first-place votes and a point total of 1,611, to 54 first-place votes and 1,434 points for Auburn.

Three teams dropped out of the top 10 entirely. Notre Dame, fourth a week ago, dropped to 12th. Oklahoma, a good second last week, dropped to 11th as a result of its one-point defeat by Texas, Pittsburgh, No. 10 a week ago, fell out of sight through being trounced by Michigan State.

Texas came up to 7th from 16th by defeating Oklahoma. Navy moved from 12th to 6th on its victory over Michigan, and LSU came up from 11th to 9th by whipping Miami, 41-0.

Ohio State, victor over Illinois, moved up from fifth to third place, and Wisconsin moved from sixth to fourth. Michigan State also advanced, jumping from ninth to fifth through its showing against Pittsburgh.

Clemson was in 10th place. The top 10, based on 10 points for a first place vote, 9 for second, etc. (first-place votes in parentheses):

Oklahoma Drops Out Of Top Ten

NEW YORK (UPI)—Army, with a powerhouse reminiscent of the old Blanchard-Davis era, replaced Auburn atop the United Press International college football ratings today and once mightily Oklahoma dropped out of the top 10 group for the first time since 1953.

Coach Earl (Red) Blaik's crashing Cadets, who conquered Notre Dame, 14-2, last weekend, moved into the No. 1 spot for the first time since Oct. 24, 1950—the year the UPI coaches' ratings were inaugurated.

Auburn, which now has a winning streak of 17 games, dropped back to second place, followed in order by three Big Ten teams—Wisconsin, Ohio State and Michigan State. In a big shakeup of the top 10 group, Navy jumped up to sixth place, followed in order by Texas, Mississippi, Louisiana State and Notre Dame. Navy, Texas and Louisiana State were this week's newcomers in the select group. Oklahoma, upset 13-14 by Texas, dropped back to 11th place. This marked the first week since Oct. 6, 1953 (that the Sooners were not among the top 10 teams in the nation. Other teams which dropped out of the top 10 were Pittsburgh and Purdue.

This week's voting again was scattered, seven teams receiving votes for first place. Army had 14, Auburn 10, Wisconsin 5, Ohio State 3, and Michigan State, Texas and LSU 1 each.

In points, distributed on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis for votes from first to 10th places, Army had 308, Auburn 271, Wisconsin 244 and Ohio State 242.

After Oklahoma in this week's second 10 group came Clemson, Iowa, and Oregon, with Colorado and Purdue tied for 15th place.

Ladies City Race Knotted

The Ladies City Bowling League race became knotted with pacing Frank's Team falling to third place in being shut out, 3-0, by Pyrofax Gas. The sweep shoved the Gasers into a first-place tie with Capitals who were white washing Old Germans, 3-0.

Diamonds slipped by Old Exports, 2-1, in the third match. Pacing their teams were Lois Wilson, 195-514, Pyrofax Gas; Mary Hartley, 167-438, Capitals; Jo Alderton, 161-415, Old Germans; Helen Winbrenner 161 and Elsie Morton 428, Frank's; Mildred Seibert, 148-426, Diamonds; Margaret Reuschel, 145-416, Old Exports. Standings:

W. L.
Capitals	14 4 Old Germans 5 13
Pyrofax Gas 14 4 Old Exports 5 13
Frank's	12 6 Diamonds 4 14

LaSalle Jayvees Beat Alco, 12-0

LaSalle High School's junior varsity football team scored a 12-0 victory over the Little Campers of Allegany yesterday on the losers' field.

Frankie Brode bucked over from the one-yard line for the Explorers' first touchdown right before the half, while Ronnie Speir tallied the second with an eight-yard canter in the third quarter.

New York Giants' Disabled List Grows

NEW YORK (UPI)—M. L. Brackett, a tackle, has joined a growing list of disabled New York Giant football players. Brackett, before the half, while Ronnie Speir tallied the second with an eight-yard canter in the third quarter.

However, three other European heavies recently were underdogs but came through with upsets. They were Sweden's Ingemar Johansson, England's Brian London and Germany's Willie Besmanoff.

Cooper, 24, is expected to go all-out for a kayo tonight since he believes an impressive victory will earn a title shot. He is very friendly with promoter Harry Levene, who is very friendly with Cus D'Amato, manager of champion Floyd Patterson.

Conversely, Patterson and D'Amato have been frigid toward Folley for various reasons, despite his number two ranking by the world championship committee.

Rookie Joe Quigg On Disabled List

NEW YORK (UPI)—Joe Quigg, rookie forward from North Carolina, has been placed on the New York Knickerbockers' disabled list. His right knee, broken in an intra-squad game last November, has not responded to treatment.

Cardinals Edge Hawaiian Stars At Honolulu, 5-4

HONOLULU (AP)—An unexpected run in the fifth inning gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 5-4 victory over the Hawaii All Stars Monday night.

The winners rapped Lew Burdette, Milwaukee World Series pitcher, for five hits and four runs in the first two innings. Hawaii tagged Phil Paine for three hits and two runs in the first, added another run on three hits in the third and got to Ernie Brolio for a final tally in the fourth on a solo homer by Eddie Mathews, Milwaukee third baseman.

Fort Hill, incidentally, will put its 16-game victory streak on the line Friday night when it invades Hagerstown to battle the ninth-ranked North Hubs... A large delegation of Fort Hill followers is expected to make the trip.

Pitt 13-Point Pick Over WVU

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—The odds-makers today installed the Pitt Panthers as 13-point favorites for their 51st gridiron meeting with West Virginia Saturday at Pitt Stadium.

But the Panther coaching staff failed to be convinced that the point-spot was in line. Some heavy contact work was on tap and the Pitt gridders returned to the practice field after staging only a light workout Monday, during which they were called down on the mistakes they made in losing to Michigan State last week end.

WASH 'N WEAR Flannel

"I just can't say enough for Blue Cross!" "We appreciate the extra advantages of Blue Cross!"

"It was a fortunate thing for me that our company, the Harry T. Campbell Sons' Corp., decided to provide its employees with a Blue Cross program. My wife and I have been subscribers for a long time, but until recently, when she was hospitalized, I guess we never really appreciated Blue Cross. Believe me, I just can't say enough for Blue Cross now! Without it, that hospital bill would have been a real setback to us. And what's more, I didn't have to get involved in filing claims; Blue Cross handled the whole thing direct with the hospital."

says Harry E. Hall, Driver, Harry T. Campbell Sons' Corp., Towson

With Blue Cross, you're protected wherever you go—even if you move or change jobs. And as a Blue Cross subscriber you're protected after retirement—regardless of your age—for the rest of your life!

City Will Consider Fee Request By Garbage Men

The City of Cumberland has notified area garbage contractors that the November 15 deadline for regulation of the city dump will not be changed, but they were also told that a request for lower fees will be given consideration.

The garbage contractors met with the Mayor and Council following yesterday's council meeting.

George Boeh, Beall Street, who hauls garbage primarily for residents of LaVale and downtown business establishments here, reported he served 1,200 families, all of whom live outside the city limits and that his only dumping site is the Cumberland dump.

Ralph Stevanus, RD Meyers-dale, Pa., reported he provides garbage collection services for about 1,100 families, primarily in the Bedford Road area and including some from Pennsylvania.

Gilbert Kerns, Bowmans Addition, reported he has about 150 customers, most of them in the Bowmans Addition area.

George Fuller, Corriganville, said he served about 100 families, mostly in the Corriganville area.
This adds up to over 2,500 families who live outside the limits of Cumberland and have been dumping trash and garbage at the city dump at no cost.

A city spokesman said the garbage contractors complained about the proposal for the hours at the dump.

Under the city proposal, dumping will be allowed from 9 a. m.
to 4:30 p. m. on weekdays and 9 a. m. to noon on Saturdays. It will be closed on certain pre-announced holidays and Sundays.

City officials explained that after the regulations are placed in effect, dumping can be allowed only when an employee of the city is on duty, and that since there is only one worker, the hours must remain as originally proposed.

The garbage haulers also complained about the proposed charge of $12 a year per family.
The fee proposal, haulers were told, will be taken under further consideration.

Under the proposal, commercial haulers: from outside the city limits of Cumberland would be required to furnish a list of all customers residing outside the city limits. The hauler would be required to pay the city $12 a year for each customer outside the city limits.

An amplified recording of a frightened scolding is used to scare marauding birds away from cherry orchards at Copenhagen.

lowing persons have filed application

County Group To Sing With State Chorus

The All-State Chorus which will sing at the annual convention of the Maryland State Teachers Association this week has 26 students from Allegany County public schools as members.

The three-day convention opens on Thursday, Dr. Frank E. Gamble, supervisor of music education in county public schools, said yesterday the group will leave today for Baltimore to take part in rehearsals.

Scheduled to go from the county are Clyde Bantz, Fred Eichner, Kenneth Moreland, Paul Ossip, Dorthea Hardman, Carole Ann
Blackburn, Allegany High School;
Vernon McKenzie, Paul Alkire, Charles Robison, James White, Ronald Growden, Ellen Johnson and Mary Royce, Fort Hill High School.

Vernie Marshall, Pat Delbrook, Larry Fresh and Marsha Barkley, Beall High School; Dawna
Jean Huff and Tommy Carter, Mt. Savage High School; Ronald Broadwater and Charles Messer, Bruce High School.

Harry Jenkins and James Richie, Valley High School;
Mary Edna Kelchner, Grace
Klier and Larry Rucker, Flintstone High School.

Dr. Gamble, who plans to attend the convention, said that several other music teachers of the county will be present. The concert, he said, will be held on Friday about 9:30 a. m.

Don Craig of New York will be the conductor, Monroe Harris, of the Flintstone High School teaching staff, will be the chaperson of the Allegany County group.

Church Asks Building Bids

Rev. William R. Snyder, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran Church, said bids on erecting a new edifice on Frederick Street near the city limits will be received until 2 p.m. November 4 at the church office on Columbia Street.

Rev. Mr. Snyder said working drawings and specifications were received from the architect, T.
Norman Mansell, Philadelphia, yesterday afternoon. Copies may be obtained by contractors from the church office or from the architect's office in Philadelphia.

Nine contractors-five of them from out-of-town-have informed Rev. Mr. Snyder that they plan to submit bids on or before November 4.

Groundbreaking for the new church was staged June 1, which was Trinity Sunday. The congregation voted last October to relocate the church on Frederick Street. In February, Mansell's drawings for the new church were approved by the congregation.

Free-Standing Tower In Japan World's Largest

TOKYO (UPI)—Workmen installed an 82-foot antenna atop Tokyo's "Television City" tower today, making it the tallest free-standing tower in the world.

The 1,092-foot tower stands 108 feet taller than Paris's Eiffel Tower, nearest competitor in its class of structure.

The Tokyo tower rates third among man-made structures, trailing a 1,610-foot supporter tower in Roswell, N.M., and the 1,472-foot Empire State Building in New York City.

The 7-million-dollar Tokyo tower is scheduled to begin transmitting test patterns for two local television stations next month. Ultimately, it will be used by five stations.

The Dead Sea, lowest spot on earth, is 1,290 feet below sea level.

Berry Urges Election Of Republican Delegates

An all-Republican delegation to the General Assembly at Annapolis from Allegany County was urged last night at a GOP rally held in Midland.

Del. Thomas N. Berry, addressing the fifth in a series of Republican rallies, said a solid Republican delegation is particularly important in the coming session.

All local legislation, he explained, must first be referred to the Allegany County Delegation before going to the House, and all Republican Delegation can give such measures careful and frank appraisal without being hindered by partisan politics within the Delegation.

Allegany County's all-Republican Delegation at Annapolis has been a cornerstone of Republican strength, he said, since the minority floor leader has been from Allegany County. It has also meant that Allegany County has been assured representation of the important Legislative Council, which meets regularly between sessions of the General Assembly.

Master of ceremonies at the rally was David J. Williams, member of the county delegation to the House of Delegates.

The principal talk was given by George R. Hughes Jr., minority floor leader of the House of Delegates who was introduced by Delegate Berry.

Mr. Hughes urged all those present to continue as solid Republicans and pointed out he has worked with all the present delegates candidates who are all qualified for the position.

He went on to say that candidates seeking state posts have had experience in lawmaking.
Delegate Hughes said that J.
Mallard Tawes, Democratic nominee for governor, has refused to take a stand on any major issue in the campaign thus far. He added that the Republican record is one to be proud of.

County Commissioner William
A. Wilson, who spoke on behalf of the Board, said the Republican candidates for commissioner represent a total of 17 years experience in that office.

"I can assure the voters of Allegany County that the Republican candidates will devote all of the time necessary for the full performance of their office," said Commissioner Wilson.

He added, "our slate of county commissioners already have a much needed background for supervising the Roads Department, the county institutions and acting as a Board of Review for the Assessing Department."

Some 100 persons attended the rally, according to Donald W.
Mason, campaign manager for the county.

Wiley Ford PTA Will Have Fun Festival

A fun festival will be held Friday by the Wiley Ford Parent-Teacher Association. Plans for the event were made at a meeting of the PTA with Mrs. Doris Fazenbaker presiding.

Speakers at the meeting were Edgar Tucker and Thomas O'Connor, coaches at Ridgeley High School, who spoke on discipline and sportsmanship.

The meeting was attended by 125 persons and the attendance award was won by the sixth grade.

Optimist Club Will Honor Baseball Team

The Cumberland Optimist Club will be host to members of the club's Hot Stove League baseball team tomorrow at 6:15 p.m. at the dinner meeting at Central YMCA.

A movie on archery and big game hunting with a bow and arrow is scheduled to be shown.
John J. Cavanaugh, baseball coach at Fort Hill, will also be on the program.

Dear Abby - - -
By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: The following, worth it.

DEAR SORRY: TIME does not cure all diseases, but when the
"sickness" is an emotional one (and love is) the only answer is to find a doctor who will help you to understand your emotions. You could have saved yourself 22 years and a kick in the pants.

DEAR ABBY: Please don't laugh at my problem as it is very hard to figure out. For me, at least. My girlfriend sent me her picture. She wrote across the bottom, "Yours, till eternity.
Love, Doris." Only she spelled
"ETERNITY" "ITERNUITY".
A few people have noticed this and I am embarrassed. Should I send it back to her and ask her to correct it? Should I try to correct it myself or should I ditch
the picture? EMBARRASSED

DEAR EMBARRASSED: If you can't correct it quietly yourself, send it back to her and ask her to correct it. She'd feel worse if she found out you ditched the picture. (P.S.—Buy her a dictionary for Christmas.)

DEAR ABBY: I am thirteen, almost fourteen. My best girlfriend has the most wonderful brother. He is 16 and goes to the same high school. We sometimes walk together, the three of us. I know he likes me but he is too brotherly. I don't want this. I have my own brothers. I would give anything if he liked me like I like him. How can I get him as a boyfriend?

SINCERELY, ANN

DEAR ANN: Be available . . .
but not aggressive . . . be sweet, but not sugary. Let him know that you like him—but don't let him know how much. Good luck!

CONFIDENTIAL to Miss Shuga: A man who will step out on his wife (to whom he has given his sacred vow to love and cherish until death) certainly would not hesitate to lie to you. Get wise!

Dear Abby - - -
By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: The following, worth it.

DEAR SORRY: TIME does not
cure all diseases, but when the
"sickness" is an emotional one
(and love is) the only answer is
to find a doctor who will help you to understand your emotions. You could have saved yourself 22
years and a kick in the pants.

DEAR ABBY: Please don't laugh at my problem as it is very hard to figure out. For me, at least. My girlfriend sent me her picture. She wrote across the bottom, "Yours, till eternity.
Love, Doris." Only she spelled
"ETERNITY" "ITERNUITY".
A few people have noticed this
and I am embarrassed. Should
I send it back to her and ask her to correct it? Should I try to correct it myself or should I ditch
the picture? EMBARRASSED

It's Partnership When You Bid

his doubled four-heart contract. Minus 300 would not be a tragedy in rubber bridge but the game was duplicate and it turned out to be a bottom score.

South promptly blamed North. He claimed that once North had bid two hearts he should never have bid again. South continued: "You must allow for a weak hand when I bid in third seat and I had to go to three hearts to push the opponents to three spades. They could make two spades but would have been down one at three."

South's analysis of how many spades East and West could make was correct but otherwise he was decidedly at fault.

Bridge is a partnership game and if South had passed, there was no reason why North should not try to push the opponents to three or to buy the hand at three hearts.

North held 11 high card points himself and certainly his raise to two hearts was a super maximum. How could he be expected to tell that South's rebid to three hearts was based on nothing at all except a strong pair of lungs.

You, South, hold:

What do you do?
A—This is surely a game (and possibly a slam) hand. You need to force partner to bid and do so by bidding two hearts. This does not guarantee first round heart control but does force to game.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Your partner responds two no-trump to your two-heart bid. What do you bid now?

U. S. Policy

... The American government is no good. They want to rule the world and Indonesia, too."

There is the mirror of pride, national and personal.

"Americans living here stay off to themselves; they don't even bother to learn our language," said a man in France.

In Lima, Peru, a bank clerk says:

"Americans don't really know or bother to find out much about the world outside their borders. For example, many Peruvians know that the Mississippi is the largest river in the states. How many Americans know that the Amazon is the largest in the world and starts in Peru?"

In Mexico City, a doctor recalls that at a recent medical convention he met an American doctor who praised his surgical technique. The American went on to say he never realized Mexico had such medical talent.

"Why the condescension?" asks the Mexican doctor. "Could he not have just said that as a colleague he considered the operation well done?"

Thus is formed the image of America, drawn from many mirrors. Fact and fiction, pride and prejudice, ignorance and propaganda, poverty and envy and all the incalculable measures by which one fallible human being evaluates another fallible human being.

Friends? We have many. In England, in France, in Italy, in Austria, Australia, the Philippines, Pakistan, Formosa. In any contest, most of them appear ready to take their image of America over their image of Russia.

But even among our friends, there seem to be more who need us than like us, more who see us for our misdeeds than good deeds, more who accept our aid and quietly resent needing and getting it.

Among the Frenchmen interviewed at random for this survey, all of them criticized America. None happened to recall that it was just 40 years ago that Pershing returned Lafayette's compliment and just 14 years ago that the American 1st Army liberated Paris.

And in this image of America, an American might wonder, along with the rich man talking to a needy nephew:

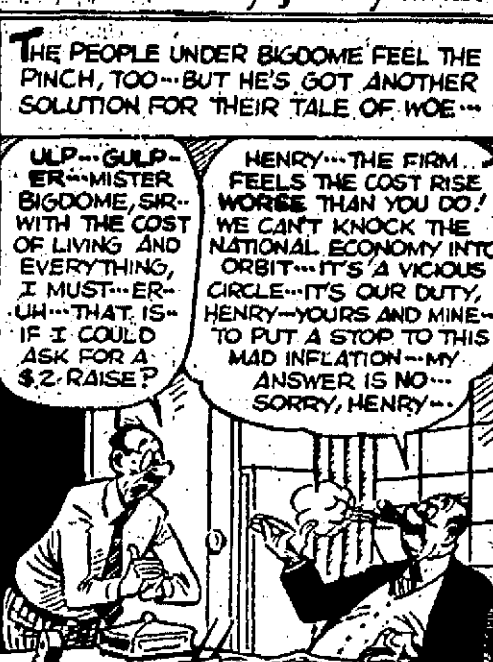

"Why are you mad at me? I haven't done anything for you lately?"

Your Horoscope

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

For Wednesday, October 15, 1958

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries)—Your Mars (impulsive) tends to take some of the edge off good Venus, Jupiter and Uranus influences. Be careful as you choose your methods and pace the tempo of your activities.

APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus)—A good day on the whole, but be careful, nevertheless, in making decisions. Avoid unnecessary changes of plans. Things being normal, you should realize ambitious easily. Familiar matters especially also favored.

MAY 22 to JUNE 21 (Gemini)—You may have to battle yourself a bit if day seems dull and you are lacking in initiative or energy. You have a mission just give that extra punch and efforts will prove fruitful.

JUNE 22 to JULY 21 (Cancer)—You will have to supply the initiative and work steadily if you are to get desired returns for your efforts, but results will be worth it. Fine artistic professions highly encouraged.

JULY 22 to AUGUST 21 (Leo)—Educational interests, sound investments and substantial business ventures are under friendly Jupiter and Uranus aspects. For best results, emphasize good management, originality in putting over your ideas.

AUGUST 22 to SEPTEMBER 21 (Virgo)—This can be a good day, pleasant and beneficial even if not particularly stimulating or profitable. Financially, however, good plans, conceived now for later action, should prove productive.

SEPTEMBER 22 to OCTOBER 21 (Libra)—Capitulate on all your talents and abilities now for much can be accomplished with skilful management. Pursue a generous attitude when defending principles.

OCTOBER 22 to NOVEMBER 21 (Scorpio)—Good influences encourage science, medicine, important undertakings, sound financial interests. But there is a warning too: be sensibly cautious in all matters and be calm.

NOVEMBER 22 to DECEMBER 21 (Sagittarius)—Fine Jupiter rays: judges, bankers, personnel of large concerns, aircraft, organizations and government workers could do unusually well. Engineering, building, alterations also favored.

DECEMBER 22 to JANUARY 20 (Capricorn)—Some good aspects! New and unusual ventures—have a good chance of success. Be active, carefully though ambitious and enterprising.

JANUARY 21 to FEBRUARY 19 (Aquarius)—Uranus in advantageous position, but plan carefully before you start day's action. Don't promise or undertake what you cannot reasonably handle. Watch details.

FEBRUARY 20 to MARCH 20 (Pisces)—Your Neptune in fine position now. By taking advantage of progressive methods and the latest in tools, equipment and scientific devices, you can earn fresh rewards, move ahead generally.

YOU BORN TODAY have qualities and attributes of distinction, can call upon new and creative ideas and means to aid and better almost anything you undertake. You enjoy challenges, will work hard to gain your goals, but may tend at times to overestimate and then have to rush. You could succeed as a writer, an actor or in the world. Birthdate: Virgil, Roman Epic poet.

KOBE, Japan (UPI)—The 2,500-ton tanker Tsubame Maru slid down the ways accidentally Wednesday two days ahead of schedule. One workman was killed and three injured in the incident.

British Steel Drops 11 Per Cent In 1958

LONDON (UPI)—British steel production has dropped 11 per cent this year, figures for the first nine months of 1958 issued by the Iron and Steel Board showed today.

British Radar Can "Remember" Images

LONDON (UPI)—British scientists have developed radar screens that can "remember" images for periods of up to 20 minutes, scientific sources reported Wednesday.

Delays Departure

WHEELING, W. Va. (UPI)—City Manager Robert L. Plummer has agreed to remain on the job at least until Jan. 1 and "possibly" until next July. Plummer resigned Sept. 2, giving failing health as the reason for leaving the post he has held for the past 12 years. He was asked to reconsider by city council.

Charged With Murder

HARRISVILLE, W. Va. (UPI)—Carl R. Duralia, 43, of nearby Macfarlan will go on trial on a murder charge in Ritchie County Circuit Court Monday. He was indicted Tuesday by the Ritchie grand jury in the slaying of Harry Goodnight, 51, last July and was remanded to jail in lieu of $10,000 bond.

Artichoke "Thistle"

The artichoke belongs to the same family as sunflowers, chrysanthemums, lettuce, salsify and thistles. Its forerunner, cardoon, a giant thistle, was cultivated for times as strong as they need be. Its leaf shoots before the Christmas Era.

D'Alesandro

Hilltop Inn in Garrett County and visits to the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company and Frostburg State Teachers College.

He introduced the state candidates, Mr. Taves, Mayor D'Alesandro, Louis L. Goldstein, for comptroller, and John F. Foley, for Maryland's Sixth Congressional District.

C. Ferdinand Sybert, candidate for re-election as attorney general, he said, is ill with laryngitis.

Supports College

The GOP, Goldstein said, is in trouble as people balance promises with performances.

Senator Goldstein pledged to work for three buildings needed at Frostburg State Teachers College, and said "we must take care of the far end of the State."

He attacked D. Eldred Rinehart, state GOP and Racing Commission chairman, saying Mr. Rinehart came to Annapolis only to lobby and that the 10 charges he made Monday morning were "ghost written."

Finan said Mr. Rinehart will "rue the day he picked Louis Goldstein to make pot shots at."

Simon P. Reilly, Allegany County Democratic campaign chairman, suggested "Remember the State of Maine" as the battle cry of Allegany County Democrats.

GOP candidates, he said, are admitting weakness of several candidates, adding, "Let's not disappoint them."

Reilly urged voters to sweep county Democratic candidates into office and carry the state ticket with them.

The absence of pride in the Republican record, Foley said, will cause thousands of Allegany County Republicans to vote the Democratic ticket on November 4.

He said his Republican opponent did not enact a single piece of legislation for the people of the 6th District and that 75 of the 77 bills he introduced died in committee.

A requiem mass will be celebrated on Thursday at 9 a. m. in the Catholic Church of the Assumption. Interment will be in St. Thomas Cemetery.

James M. Stratton

James Madison Stratton, 88, of 144 Bedford Street, died yesterday afternoon in Memorial Hospital where he had been admitted Sunday.

Mr. Stratton was admitted to the hospital after sustaining a leg injury in a fall near the Western Maryland Railway Company's passenger station.

A native of Springfield, Ohio, he was born July 21, 1870 a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James M. Stratton. His wife, Mrs. Nellie (Chandler) Stratton, preceded him in death.

Mr. Stratton was a member of the Knights of Templar, a 32nd degree Mason, Royal Arch Mason and the Ali Ghan Shrine Club. He was a former brick contractor.

Survivors include two sons,

Vernon Stratton, Charlottesville, Va., and Clyde Stratton, Mansfield, Ohio.

The body is at the Stein Funeral Home where the family will receive friends from 2 to 4 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m.

Services will be conducted Thursday at the funeral home at 2 p. m. by Rev. Carlton M. Harris, pastor of Centre Street Methodist Church. Interment will be in Rose Hill Mausoleum.

Members of the Lodge will conduct graveside services.

Doctor's Combination of Ingredients Stops Stomach Gas Before It Starts

Buffalo, N.Y. (Special)—Thousands of people who suffered for years from gassy stomach, heartburn, belching after meals and other symptoms of acid indigestion now report wonderful relief, thanks to a remarkable formula developed by a prominent doctor, and known as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Containing not just one or two, but a special combination of 7 ingredients, this famous medicine is designed to stop stomach gas before it even starts. Instead of upsetting the delicate acid-balance of the stomach, as too frequent use of soda and alkalis often does, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery actually promotes more normal stomach activity.

Taken regularly, it tones up your digestive system and helps you avoid gas pains, heartburn and sour stomach. Once your stomach is working properly, you can eat what you like without fear of distress.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has helped so many people that over 36 million bottles have been sold. Get it at your druggist's, today in liquid or tablets. Your money back if not entirely satisfied.
